HITLER TO PLAN NEW COUP

Startling Of World Promised

Action Will Follow Almost 100 Per Cent Voting Victory

GETS 98.79 PER CENT

Nazi Propaganda Machine Moves Swiftly And Surely

By Louis P. Lochner

BERLIN, March 30.—Adolf Hitler, bearing the greatest endorsement ever given in any plebiscite, turned today to drafting of proposals to the Locarno powers in the Rhineland crisis which political sources intimated would "astound the world."

The Nazi propaganda machine, moving with speed and precision, swung virtually the entire German nation behind Der Fuehrer in yesterday's election, nominally to select a few reichstag but actually to approve the remilitarization of the Rhineland.

Official returns gave Hitler 98.79 per cent—the strongest majority the head of any state ever received—of the 44,952,476 votes cast. Only 542,954 were counted as invalid.

In the German view, the fact that there was no chance to vote in opposition, but only to take the Nazi party list or leave it, did not detract from the overwhelming Nazi triumph.

Der Fuehrer now felt, informed sources said, that whatever he might demand from the other powers he would demand not as the dictator, but as the servant of 67,000,000 Germans who commanded him not to yield one inch of German territory, nor one bit of German rights.

Hitler, it was believed, would be more intransigeant than ever now in his dealings with other nations.

There was no intimation, however, of the exact contents of his extensive counter-proposals to the Locarno powers, promised for tomorrow in his preliminary reply March 24 to the London plan for a settlement of the Rhineland issue.

NEW PROBLEMS FOR EUROPE FOMENTING

(By Associated Press)

Adolf Hitler's election victory Sunday, while confidently expected by everyone, appeared to pose new problems for Europe's statesmen.

The British cabinet decided that German military officers should be invited to confer with the general

TWO ELECTION TESTS HEARD BY HIGH COURT

Both Involve District Attorneyships In North Louisiana

NEW ORLEANS, March 30.—(AP)—Two election contest suits, both involving district-attorneyships in north Louisiana, were being heard today in the supreme court. One of the suits grew out of the race for the office of district attorney in the district comprising the parishes of Richland, West Carroll and Franklin, and the other in the parish of Caddo. Both were runoffs in the second Democratic primary of March 3 and both plaintiffs were seeking a recount.

In the Richland-West Carroll-Franklin controversy the plaintiff was Warren Hunt, attorney of Rayville, who was defeated for the office, on the face of the returns, by J. Vernon Sims of Oak Grove. Mr. Hunt received 7,052 votes and Mr. Sims 7,274 votes.

Mr. Hunt alleged "erroneous re-

FORMER GOVERNOR PLANS SENATE RACE

JACKSON, Miss., March 30.—(AP)—Former Governor Sennett Conner today mapped plans for his race for the United States senate this summer against Pat Harrison, incumbent senator.

His brief statement formally announcing his candidacy follows:

"It is evident that the people of Mississippi have made up their minds to elect a new United States senator this summer. I shall file my formal application with the people for the position."

IN TENSE CLOSING SCENES OF BRUNO'S KIDNAPING DRAMA

Ignores Hoffman | Angry Prosecutor Assails Governor's Actions | Checks On Ladder

Here's what Dr. John F. (Jafsie) Condon was doing while Governor Hoffman of New Jersey sought to interview him about Lindbergh kidnaping testimony — dining with friends in White Plains, N. Y. The sly look seems to indicate he doesn't mind being the center of attention.

Tension between Governor Hoffman and officials who prosecuted Bruno Hauptmann for the Lindbergh kidnaping increased hourly as the date of the German's execution neared. Here Prosecutor Anthony Hauck of Hunterdon county, N. J., is pictured at Trenton, N. J., during a scorching interview, surrounded by reporters. He threatened legal action to prevent a stay of execution and urged a legislative investigation that might lead to impeachment of the governor for his activity in the case.

Arch W. Loney (above), federal employe and wood expert, helped Governor Hoffman of New Jersey examine the attic of Bruno Hauptmann's former home in the search for evidence that the Lindbergh kidnap ladder had been "framed." Loney insisted the attic lumber and ladder showed differences.

FIRING BEGUN IN EARNEST ON TAX PROGRAM

Six Republicans Assert Plan Not Really Levy Measure

WASHINGTON, March 30—(AP)—The shooting began in earnest over the new $799,000,000 tax program today as the house ways and means committee convened to open public hearings.

Even before the hearings started—with Internal Revenue Commissioner Guy T. Helvering summoned to the stand—Republicans began peppering the tentative program which a tax sub-committee drafted after President Roosevelt called for taxes to finance farm plans and part of the bonus costs.

Six of the minority members of the house said it was not a tax bill at all. Their joint statement declared the hearings were "irregular," that the Democrats were merely embarked on a "fishing expedition" in search of a "defensible revenue program."

The six are Representatives Bacon of New York, Michener of Michigan, Guyer of Kansas, Hancock of New York, Tobey of New Hampshire and Arends of Illinois.

The measure on which hearings are being conducted embraces taxes on net corporation incomes, graduated according to the percentage of profit retained for reserves, and a

ROOSEVELT BEGINS NEW FISHING WEEK

MIAMI, Fla., March 30.—(AP)—President Roosevelt began his second week of fishing in southern waters today after a "quiet Sunday off Crooked Island."

In a message to his temporary White House headquarters here last night, the president announced that his fishing luck was good on Saturday.

"Good fishing at Mariguana yesterday," the message said. "We are spending a quiet Sunday off Crooked Island and proceed to Cat Cay tomorrow. All well."

A navy plane carrying three pouches of mail for the president met a ship Sunday afternoon near Crooked Island and then went to Nassau, Bahamas, where it spent the night.

U. S. Agents In Raid In Arkansas Throw In Gas

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., March 30.—(AP)—Department of Justice agents today surrounded and seized a farmhouse on the Malvern road near here with a barrage of gas bombs, but reported that the persons they had sought "were not there."

A report persisted, however, that a capture had been made.

The agents insisted the house was found to be empty when they occupied it.

Against this announcement, however, was the report to the sheriff's office in Hot Springs by a man who claimed to have been passing the house at the time of the attack that he had seen a man and two women taken from the house. He said they were rushed away in a fast car.

AMATEUR UNIT PLAYS IN CITY

Entertaining Program Presented Before Large Audience

Large audiences Sunday afternoon and night greeted the appearance of "Unit No. 14" of Major Edward Bowes' famous radio hour amateurs at the Ouachita Parish High school auditorium, brought here under the auspices of Barkdull Faulk Post No. 13 of the American Legion, in aid of the G. B. Cooley tuberculosis sanatorium.

The concert was repeated in full Monday afternoon. The last performance will be given Monday night. At the end of the program, the Major Bowes trophy will be presented to the local amateur act adjudged the best given in connection with the appearance here of Unit No. 14." After the presentation, Kate Stafford, nationally known culinary expert, will extend an invitation to the audience to attend the News-Star—World cooking school, starting Tuesday and continuing through Thursday.

Eight of the amateur artists, who had been chosen for one of the Major Bowes traveling units by popular vote in a nation-wide contest, gave a highly entertaining program. The members of the concert group are: James E. Ingalls, "yodeling star"; Joe Garguilio, baritone; William Blau Boadway, boy

ARMY OFFICER DIES IN FRISCO

Heart Disease Proves Fatal For Native Of Ouachita Parish

Colonel J. Ernest Morris, 60 years old, retired United States army officer, died Sunday of heart disease in a San Francisco, Calif., hospital, according to a telegram received here Monday by relatives. He was a member of a pioneer Ouachita parish family.

A native of old Trenton, now a part of West Monroe, Colonel Morris received his early education in the schools of the parish. He later attended Louisiana State university in Baton Rouge.

At the outbreak of the Spanish-American war, Colonel Morris enlisted as a volunteer and saw service in Cuba. Remaining in the army after the conflict, he later served in the Philippines and in Alaska. He also participated in the World war. He retired from active duty a year ago.

COUNTESS BARBARA IS ABLE TO BE OUT

LONDON, March 30.—(AP)—Countess Barbara Hutton Haugwitz-Reventlow went outdoors today for the first time since the birth of her son and her resultant serious illness a month ago.

The Woolworth heiress wore a fox-trimmed spring coat and a toque trimmed with osprey. With a nurse, she was driven in a closed automobile through Hyde park.

SIX PERSONS ARE INJURED IN COLLISIONS

None Seriously Hurt In Automobile Crashes Sunday

Six persons were injured, none seriously, Sunday afternoon in three traffic accidents in Monroe and West Monroe. One of the accidents, which took place at Louisville avenue and North Second street, occurred because a driver was unaware that Louisville became a right-of-way last Friday, according to his report to police.

Automobiles driven by G. Tom Peters, who gave his address as Sterlington route, and Mrs. Clyde Mitchell of West Monroe, collided at 3:40 p.m. Sunday at the intersection of Louisville and North Second. The Mitchell car was traveling east on Louisville and the other car, which was traveling south on North Second, was not stopped at the intersection because Peters did not know Louisville was a right-of-way, he said.

Mrs. Mitchell suffered a fractured rib. She was treated at the Vaughan-Wright-Bendel clinic and removed to her home, 108 Lazarre avenue.

PASTOR STRUCK FOR FAILURE TO SALUTE

BERLIN, March 30.—(AP)—A workman who struck the acting pastor of Berlin's American church, the Rev. Stewart Herman of Harrisburg, Pa., became the object of a city-wide police hunt today.

Government officials were frankly annoyed by this striking of a foreigner for failure to raise his arm in the Nazi salute to the flag, and the search for the assailant was supervised by the Nazi secret police.

A spokesman for the propaganda ministry said, "the incident is most deeply regretted, and if the culprit is found, he will be severely punished."

The workman, who apparently thought the pastor showed a lack of reverence for the Nazi flag, struck him on the jaw last Friday and hastened off into a crowd.

ITALIAN PLANE FIRE DESTROYS ETHIOPIAN CITY

Harar, Nation's Second Municipality, Almost Wiped Out

HOSPITALS WRECKED

Monsignor Jaroseau, In Charge Of French Mission, Remains

ADDIS ABABA, March 30.—(AP)—An Italian air raid which spread fire and panic throughout Harar wrought virtual destruction on that second city of Ethiopia, the government charged today, and wrecked several hospitals and French centers.

A suadron of fascist planes, Ethiopian reports said, plunged incendiary bombs down on the strategic center 250 miles east of the capital and 30 miles south of the Addis Ababa-Djibouti railroad for more than two hours yesterday, leaving the city in flames.

Forewarned by scouting planes, however, most of the populace fled the city in terror, advices to the capital said, and few persons were believed to have fallen victims to the bombardment.

Bombs Hit Hospitals

An official communique, relayed by telephone from Harar to Addis Ababa, said 15 bombs struck the Egyptian Red Cross hospital there, several hit the Ethiopian Red Cross hospital and two fell near the Swedish hospital.

A French mission, the French consulate, the former Italian consulate, the Ethiopian radio station and prison all were reported officially to have been ruined.

"Monsignor Jaroseau, in charge of the French mission, refused to leave his altar during the bombardment," the communique said. "The church was wrecked, but he was unhurt."

The attack on Harar, coupled with a heavy bombardment of Jijiga, 50 miles east of Harar and a center of Ethiopia's southern defenses, raised native fears in Addis Ababa that the capital itself might be the next target of the Italian aerial bombs.

Capital sources said Harar had been declared an open town, completely demilitarized since December of last year. They expressed belief that the bombing of that city, a great Moslem center, might inflame Mohammedans throughout the world.

Ethiopian reports said 25 Italian planes first roared over Harar from one side and 35 flew in from another side just after dawn yesterday, but these squadrons confined their activities to scouting.

From 15 to 20 bombers swung over the city at 7:15 a.m., advices to the capital said, and rained down their deadly cargo until 9:30 a.m., when they turned and flew back to their bases.

The European quarter, only recently the base for more than a score of foreign correspondents, was reported damaged badly, with most of the city aflame. Several Coptic Christian churches were destroyed. There were four hospitals in Harar.

FATHER HELD IN DEATH OF GIRL

Two Companions Of Young Ballet Dancer Also Shot

ROCHESTER, N. Y., March 30.—(AP)—A 49-year-old father was formally accused of first degree murder today in the fatal shooting of his daughter, a young ballet dancer, and the serious wounding of her two escorts.

District Attorney Daniel J. O'Mara preferred the murder charge against John (Butch) Schenck after the death yesterday of his daughter, Winifred, 18, as the climax of a family quarrel. The escorts, Nelvin Zietvogel, 21, and John Wehbring, 20, were taken to hospitals in a serious condition.

Schenck was captured in a barn by sheriff's deputies.

O'Mara said Schenck was found asleep with two rifles, a shotgun and a revolver in his automobile.

The girl had quarreled with her father at his Oklahoma beach cottage over a small sum of money, O'Mara said.

The district attorney said the girl and her two companions were shot when an automobile driven by Schenck forced their car off the road as the three were returning to Rochester from a lakeshore party.

Schenck, proprietor of a lakeside resort, was quoted by the prosecutor as saying he could remember nothing about the shooting.

MANY ASK JOBS AS POSTMASTER

Senator Overton Receives Flood Of Requests For Places

WASHINGTON, March 30.—(AP)—The office of Senator Overton has been flooded with requests for postmaster appointments as a result of the recent agreement of Postmaster General Farley to make patronage peace in Louisiana and send postmaster nominations to the senate for confirmation.

Because of this flow of requests from constituents, it has become necessary for Overton to mail out form letters explaining that nominations first have to be recommended by Louisiana house members. These recommendations later are submitted to the two senators for their approval or disapproval.

Both Senator Overton and Senator Rose McConnell Long have adopted a policy of approving only nominations submitted by Representatives Derouen, Maloney and Fernandez. Nominations from the other members—Wilson, Sandlin, Montet, Dear and Sanders—have been referred to the congressmen-designate.

In his letter, Mr. Overton said:

"The congressmen from the first, second and seventh congressional districts of Louisiana have conferred and cooperated with me in the selection and recommendation of applicants for postmasterships in their districts and Senator Long and I have approved their nominations and they have been confirmed.

"The congressmen from the third, fourth, fifth, sixth and eighth congressional districts have not given the

By Dale Harrison
(Copyright, 1936, by Associated Press)

TRENTON, N. J., March 30.—With the governor of New Jersey fighting, none too hopefully, in his behalf, Bruno Richard Hauptmann begged the court of pardons today to save him from death in the electric chair tomorrow night.

Governor Harold G. Hoffman, believing the execution at this time of Hauptmann, be he innocent or guilty, will not solve the Lindbergh case, hoped to convince the court, which he heads, that there is sufficient evidence to support his repeated charge that Hauptmann was unfairly and prejudicially tried at Flemington. He also believed that the testimony of some state witnesses was open to serious questioning.

He sought to convince the pardons court—which is a court of mercy rather than law—that it should go over in detail the circumstances which have convinced him that Jersey justice is endangered if Hauptmann goes to the chair tomorrow night.

He was doubtful as the court met, however, that the other members would agree to go into the detailed reasoning which has actuated the governor himself.

The clemency appeal's success was further threatened because of Hauptmann's continuing insistence that he is innocent of any connection with the kidnap-murder. Ordinarily the court considers clemency appeals only when the prisoner confesses guilt and begs for mercy.

COURT OF PARDONS IS HEARING CASE

TRENTON, N. J., March 30.—(AP)—The court of pardons convened today to hear Bruno Richard Hauptmann's second appeal for clemency. Hauptmann, convicted of the Lindbergh baby murder, is scheduled to die in the electric chair at 8 o'clock tomorrow night.

There were few persons in the street outside the building when the judges, carrying brief cases, marched in to take the seats they occupied January 11 when after a long session they turned down Hauptmann's first appeal.

Newsmen gathered in the corridor of the fourth floor of the building.

Three state policemen in blue uniforms stood guard. Some of the tense-

SIXTH COOKING SCHOOL OPENS HERE TUESDAY

Annual Event Sponsored By News-Star And Morning World

Preparations were being completed Monday for the holding of the sixth annual cooking school sponsored by the News-Star and Morning World at the Neville High School auditorium Tuesday at 2 p.m. The sessions will be held daily through Thursday at the same place and time. In addition, there will be one night session Thursday which will conclude the school.

Mrs. Kate B. Stafford arrived in Monroe Monday to take charge of the sessions. Her name has long been a household word in the south and especially in Monroe, where her friends and admirers are unnumbered.

Special attractions of novel nature will make the forthcoming school notable. It is expected that the attendance will be larger than ever before. Visitors to the school will, in all probability, come here from many cities and towns of Monroe's trade area, as this has always been the case at previous sessions held here.

Mrs. Stafford has had the advantage of many years of experience and is regarded as unsurpassed in her line. Not only is she experienced as a cook but she also has made a careful and scientific study of home-making and

A NEW DRESS

Improvements recently adopted in the treatment of news in the News-Star are emphasized today in a new head letter dress, which is the reason for the distinctive appearance of the paper. The type has been chosen after considerable study and experimentation, and the publishers and editors hope that it will find ready favor on the part of News-Star readers. The style of type is known as "Erbar Bold Condensed," which is used in the headlines throughout the paper. The sub-headings and heads for smaller news stories are set in 12-point "Metroblack." The designs were chosen for their individuality, which is one of graceful flowing dignity, without being extreme, and is especially adaptable to afternoon newspaper requirements.

Local Little Theater Rehearsing New Play

Grace Ingledue Directing Production, 'Arms And The Man'

The year's at the spring and dramatic urges are about to burst into pyrotechnic bloom among Little Theater members, who are now busily engaged in rehearsing nightly for "Arms and the Man," under the direction of Miss Grace Ingledue, instructor in dramatics at Northeast Center.

This production is overflowing with flowery oratory, clever conversational lines and a setting that will rival anything heretofore attempted in Little Theater circles. This play will climax a year of splendid achievement, with "The Trial of Mary Dugan," under the direction of Mr. Jackson Purdy of Dallas, Texas, ranking among the best of the entire season.

The month of March, just ending, has been a busy one for club women and for members of the Junior Charity league, whose main project, the Spring Style revue, took place last week. Prominent, also, on the calendar of March was the Louisiana Federated Music clubs' convention in this city. The three-day convention ended in a blaze of glory on Saturday, at which time the junior clubs were responsible for a most delightful program featuring youthful musicians from every section of the state. Mrs. Frances Leavell, state counselor for the junior department, is to be congratulated for the splendid program and the remarkable manner in which the things were conducted generally.

Louisiana will be represented at the third triennial conference of the Associated Country Women of the World which will be held May 31 to June 6 in Washington, D. C., it was announced Saturday by officers of the Louisiana Home Demonstration council. The delegate has not yet been selected.

Approximately 1,000 women from all nations of the world are expected to attend the sessions, according to Miss Grace E. Frysinger, chairman of the conference. Delegates from England, South Africa, New Zealand, Australia, Germany, Sweden, Norway, Canada and the United States have already been chosen. An exhibit of handicraft from farm-grown products, representative of each nation, will be a feature of the session.

Home demonstration clubs in all sections of Louisiana are busy with a variety of activities, according to Miss Ellen LeNoir, state home demonstration agent. Two magazine exchanges have been established in Calcasieu parish with old magazines made available to members of the groups.

Club members in Ouachita parish are reading books recommended by the Louisiana Library commission and will receive certificates. Summer garden work is also claiming attention of parish groups and a canning program has been planned.

Planning year-round gardens and planting shrubs and trees to beautify their homes is also engaging the interest of home demonstration club members.

Crocheted Belt And Pocket Make Smart Accessories

A motif of interlocking rings distinguishes this crocheted belt and pocket set. It is made of knitting and crochet cotton in white and Nile green, and can be worked up in a short time.

The Twin City P.-T. A. council will present Dr. Arthur Gessell's noted seven-reel talking picture "Life Begins" today at the Georgia Tucker auditorium. The picture, starting this afternoon at three-thirty o'clock, will be shown continuously until ten o'clock tonight, thus permitting parents throughout the city an opportunity to see a picture that has been heartily endorsed by the Ouachita Parish Medical auxiliary. The admission is small but the information contained in the picture is invaluable. It is earnestly desired that all parents avail themselves of the privilege afforded.

Mrs. L. C. Duncan and her house guest, Mrs. L. D. Tuttle of Dallas, Texas, and a party of intimates, Mrs. Joseph Isaacman, Mrs. Wilson Ewing, Mrs. John Sherrouse, Mrs. R. L. Davis and Mrs. Cordellia Wolff, motored to Sterlington plantation on Saturday, where they were delightfully entertained at luncheon and bridge by Mrs. D. Y. Smith and Mrs. Jack Rogers.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Haynes of Dallas, Texas, were guests last week of Dr. and Mrs. George Wright. They were accompanied home by their sister, Miss Eunice Haynes, who will be their guest this week.

Personal news and social events are welcomed by this department. Readers are urged to telephone or otherwise communicate with the editor of the social page giving information that will be of general interest.

THE BOOMERANG CLUE

BY AGATHA CHRISTIE

SYNOPSIS: While Bobby Jones and Dr. Thomas are playing golf near their home in Wales, they find a man dying at the foot of a cliff. But Bobby is haunted almost as much by the woman's face he saw on a photograph in the man's pocket as by the occurrence itself. He has been in London for a few days, and on the train home he meets his friend, Lady Frances Derwent, a childhood friend whom he has not seen for some time. Frankie is bored with London, and not too thrilled with the prospect of going home either.

Chapter Four

ABOUT BADGER

BOBBY'S relationship with Frankie was a peculiar one. As children he and his brothers had played with the children at the Castle. Now that they were all grown up, they seldom came across each other. When they did, they still used Christian names.

"I'm so tired of everything," said Frankie in a weary voice. "Aren't you?"

Bobby considered. "No, I don't think I am."

"My dear, how wonderful!" said Frankie.

"I don't mean I'm hearty," said Bobby, anxious not to create a painful impression. "I just can't stand people who are hearty."

Frankie shuddered at the mere mention of the word. "I know," she murmured. "They're dreadful."

They looked at each other sympathetically.

"By the way," said Frankie suddenly, "what's all this about a man falling over the cliffs?"

"Dr. Thomas and I found him," said Bobby. "How did you know about it, Frankie?"

"Saw it in the paper. Look."

SHE indicated with her finger a small paragraph headed "Fatal Accident in Sea Mist."

> The victim of the tragedy at Marchbolt was identified late last night by means of a photograph which he was carrying. The photograph proved to be that of Mrs. Leo Cayman.
> Mrs. Cayman was communicated with and journeyed at once to Marchbolt, where she identified the deceased as her brother, Alex Pritchard. Mr. Pritchard had recently returned from Siam. He had been out of England for ten years and was just starting upon a walking tour. The inquest will be held at Marchbolt tomorrow.

Bobby's thoughts flew back to the strangely haunting face of the photograph. "I believe I shall have to give evidence at the inquest," he said.

"How thrilling! I shall come and hear you."

"I don't suppose there will be anything thrilling about it," said Bobby. "We just found him, you know."

"Was he dead?"

"No—not then. He died about a quarter of an hour later. I was alone with him." He paused.

"Rather grim," said Frankie with that immediate understanding that Bobby's father had lacked.

"Of course he didn't feel anything—"

"No?"

"But all the same—well—you see, he looked awfully alive—that sort of person—rather a rotten way to finish—just stepping off a cliff in a silly bit of mist."

"I get you, Steve," said Frankie and again the queer phrase represented sympathy and understanding. "Did you see the sister?" she asked presently.

"No. I've been up in town two days. Had to see a friend of mine about a garage business we're going in for. You remember him. Badger Beadon."

"Do I?"

"Of course you do. You must remember good old Badger. He squints."

Frankie wrinkled her brows.

"He's got an awfully silly kind of laugh—Haw, haw, haw—like that," continued Bobby helpfully.

STILL Frankie wrinkled her brows.

"Fell off his pony when we were kids," continued Bobby. "Stuck in the mud head-down, and we had to pull him out by the legs."

"Oh!" said Frankie in a flood of recollection. "I know now. He stammered."

"He still does," said Bobby proudly.

"Didn't he run a chicken farm and it went bust?" inquired Frankie.

"That's right."

"And then he went into a stockbroker's office and they fired him after a month?"

"That's it."

"And then they sent him to Australia and he came back?"

"Yes."

"Bobby," said Frankie, "you're not putting any money into this business venture, I hope?"

"I haven't got any money to put," said Bobby.

"That's just as well," said Frankie.

"Naturally," went on Bobby, "Badger has tried to get hold of someone with a little capital to invest. But it isn't so easy as you'd think."

"When you look round you," said Frankie, "you wouldn't believe people had any sense at all, but they have."

The point of these remarks seemed at last to strike Bobby.

"Look here, Frankie," he said. "Badger's one of the best—one of the very best."

"They always are," said Frankie. "Who are?"

"The ones who go to Australia and come back again. How did he get hold of the money to start this business?"

"An aunt or something died and left him a garage for six cars, with three rooms over, and his people stumped up a hundred pounds to buy second-hand cars with. You'd be surprised what bargains there are to be had in second-hand cars."

"I bought one once," said Frankie. "It's a painful subject. Don't let's talk of it. What did you want to leave the Navy for? They didn't ax you, did they? Not at your age."

Bobby flushed. "Eyes," he said gruffly.

It was just after five o'clock when they reached Sileham, which was the station for Marchbolt.

"The car's meeting me," said Frankie. "I'll give you a lift."

"Thanks. That will save me carrying this beastly thing for two miles." He kicked his suitcase disparagingly.

"Three miles, not two," said Frankie.

"Two miles if you go by the footpath over the links."

"The one where—"

"Yes—where that fellow went over."

"I suppose nobody pushed him over, did they?" asked Frankie as she handed her dressing-case to her maid.

"Pushed him over? Good Lord, no. Why?"

"Well, it would make it much more exciting, wouldn't it?" said Frankie idly.

Miss Margaret Butler entertained a few friends at her home on Layton avenue at bridge and employed an Easter theme in every detail. The bridge gifts, wrapped in pink and blue tissue, were claimed by Miss Magdalen Ammon and Miss Peggy Mengis.

A delicious confectionery course was served to Miss "Tiny" Glenn, Miss Magdelen Ammon, Miss Peggy Mengis, Miss Catherine Revoire and Miss Clara Virginia Cornett.

Mr. and Mrs. William Quiggles spent last week in Shreveport and returned again on Monday for a few days.

Members of St. David's auxiliary of Rayville expressed their regret in Mrs. George Wesley's Smith's departure for her new home in Monroe by presenting her with beautiful gifts, exquisite handkerchiefs, when she appeared among them for the last time.

A clever contest, using auxiliary members' names and Biblical characters, had been prepared by Mrs. James Green. Into this contest was woven the story of Mrs. Smith's work in the auxiliary and the church, especially with the young people in connection with Sunday school and Confirmation.

Mr. Robert Pollard spent Sunday in Natchez, Miss, where he enjoyed the Garden pilgrimage.

AT THE MOVIES

AT THE PARAMOUNT—Clark Gable as the husband, Myrna Loy as his wife, and Jean Harlow as the lovely secretary who innocently finds herself in the reluctant role of "the other woman," provides one of the greatest screen "triangles" in the history of romantic films.

It has been achieved by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer in the new and popular Faith Baldwin story of modern metropolitan romance, "Wife Versus Secretary," which plays today at the Paramount Theatre.

In this new and up-to-date theme, Clark Gable justifies himself as one of three international box-office champions, recently acclaimed by a nation-wide poll of exhibitors. He further proves his ability to make firmer his footing among the stars by stepping from such rugged and vigorous roles as Fletcher Christian in "Mutiny on the Bounty," and Captain Gaskell in "China Seas," with his newest performance as the modern business executive in "Wife Versus Secretary."

Jean Harlow, too, departs from her usual types of roles to play Gable's secretary, the sage yet lovely business confidante who eventually prevents the total wreckage of his happy marital life.

As Gable's wife, Myrna Loy displays her ability to portray the ideal screen wife of a man of millions as capably as she did william Powell's sharp-witted spouse in several recent films.

Direction of "Wife Versus Secretary" was under the expert guidance of Clarence Brown whose genius had made such delightful entertainment of Greta Garbo's "Anna Karenina" and Eugene O'Neill's rural pastoral, "Ah Wilderness!"

AT THE CAPITOL—The success which greeted their initial screen debut in western roles, is again duplicated by William Boyd and Jimmy Ellison in the latest Clarence E. Mulford "Hopalong Cassidy" adventure, "Call of the Prairie," which opened yesterday at the Capitol Theatre.

Red-blooded, fearless, happy-go-lucky, quick-on-the-draw, hard-riding "pals" of the plains, these two prototypes of the famous Mulford western fiction characters, "Hopalong Cassidy" and "Johnny Nelson," bring to the screen sterling performances that ring with sincerity. They are aided by a stellar supporting cast that includes Muriel Evans, George Hayes, Alan Bridge, Willie Fung, Chester Conklin, Hank Mann, Howard Lang and Al Hill.

Capably directed by Howard Bretherton, "Call of the Prairie" is the screen adaptation of Mulford's book, "Hopalong Cassidy's Potege." It is a stirring comedy-drama of the high-spirited "Johnny" who finds himself involved innocently in an attempted murder and robbery, and aided out of his entanglements by "Hoppy." Together they seek out a band of outlaws who have plotted "Johnny's" downfall and succeed in cleaning up the "bad lands" and restoring Johnny to good standing in the community.

"Poetry Clinics" to aid amateur versifiers through encouragement and criticism are being established throughout the country under the direction of Mrs. D. A. McDougal of Washington, D. C., and Sapulpa, Okla., chairman of the poetry division of the General Federation of Women's clubs. Mrs. McDougal has already established such a clinic in the nation's capital which has brought hundreds of inquiries by mail, phone and wire from people eager to be accepted as members of the group.

"This venture," Mrs. McDougal says, "has verified my contention that there is, in the heart of every 'mortal that liveth' an urge for self-expression, in other words, an urge to write poetry. Poems have been recited from carefree young school-girls, staid business men, busy housewives, society devotees and men and women trembling in the rays of the westering sun. Poems are not criticized when sent by mail, but we intend to establish a critics bureau a little later."

"At this time," Mrs. McDougal declares, "all club programs will consist of poetry, not forgetting the local and amateur writers. Programs will be furnished when requested, text books and other aids will be suggested for clinics and generous prizes will be offered for original poems. The poetry groups (clinics) will meet with the district and state federations when desired and, finally, all will unite in a grand poetry festival, a three-day gala event."

Although Mrs. McDougal denies that she is a poet, one of her poems is included in the volume of verse, "Wandering Fires," written by her daughters, Violet McDougal and Mary McDougal Axelson. Mrs McDougal was president of the Indian Territory Federation of Women's clubs before Oklahoma was granted statehood. She still maintains a home in Sapulpa, Okla.

NATURAL IODINE Builds Worn-Out, Pale, Sickly Folks Into Strong, Red-Blooded Men & Women

Kelpamalt, New Mineral Concentrate from the Sea, Rich in NATURAL PLANT IODINE, Feeds Starved Glands, Must Build Rich, Red Blood, Put on Lbs. of Solid, "Stay-There" Flesh, Give Steady Nerves and Day-Long Energy In First Week or Trial is Free!

Here's new hope and encouragement for thousands of even naturally skinny, weak, worn out, haggard looking men and women whose energy and strength have been sapped by overwork and worry, who are nervous, irritable, always half sick and ailing. Science says the principal cause of these rundown conditions is "GLANDS STARVING FOR IODINE." When these glands don't work properly, all the food in the world can't help you. It just isn't turned into flesh. The result is, you stay skinny, pale, tired-out and rundown.

The most important gland—the one which actually controls body weight and strength—needs a definite ration of iodine all the time—NATURAL ASSIMILABLE IODINE—not to be confused with chemical iodides which often prove toxic. Only when the system gets an adequate supply of iodine can you regulate metabolism—the body's process of converting digested food into firm flesh, new strength and energy.

To get NATURAL IODINE in convenient concentrated and assimilable form, take Kelpamalt—now recognized as the world's richest source of this precious substance. It contains 1,369 times more iodine than oysters, once considered the best source. 6 tablets alone contain more NATURAL IODINE than 480 lbs. of spinach or 1,367 lbs. of lettuce.

Try Kelpamalt for a single week and notice the difference. See flattering extra pounds of "stay-there" flesh appear in place of scrawny hollows. Notice how much better you feel, and if you don't gain at least 5 lbs. in one week, the trial is free. Swell Kelpamalt costs but little to use. Try it today. Sold by all good drug stores.

turns from ward two in West Carroll parish. Former Judge John R. McIntosh of Oak Grove presented the arguments for the defendant.

In the Caddo parish case Malcolm E. LaFargue was defeated by James U. Galloway on the face of the returns, the former receiving 8,117 votes and the latter 8,272, and resulted in the executive committee unanimously proclaiming Mr. Galloway the nominee for the office.

In his petition to the court Mr. LaFargue charged that the ballots and ballot boxes were not delivered by the election commissioners to the clerk of court as the law provides; that the ballots and ballot boxes were not handled by authorized persons, and that they were not in proper custody of the law since the original count.

Mr. Galloway was represented at the hearing by Sidney M. Cook and Harry V. Booth and Mr. LaFargue by Chris Barnette.

FIRING BEGUN IN EARNEST ON TAX PROGRAM

"windfall" levy designed to collect about $100,000,000 from processors who avoided payment of taxes levied under the old agriculture adjustment act.

The house meantime proceeded with a measure of interest to farmers, a bill to increase the capitalization of the Commodity Credit corporation from $3,000,000 to $100,000,000. The senate met on routine business.

Supreme Court Meets

Back in its big marble building after a two-week recess, the supreme court gathered to hand down opinions beginning at noon, eastern standard time. The capital wondered whether it would decide the constitutionality of the Guffey coal control act and the "truth in securities" law of 1933.

The house committee investigating the Townsend old-age pension plan devoted special attention to the recent break between Dr. F. E. Townsend and Robert E. Clements, co-leaders of the $200-a-month movement.

Other developments:

Reports to the securities commission showed that some corporations increased the salaries of their executives in 1935, as compared to 1934.

The interstate commerce commission considered submitting to the president and congress a bill to modify present unemployment insurance plans. It would make the insurance system for transportation workers an exclusively federal setup. Under the proposed bill, railroads would pay taxes on payrolls, as under the present law, but the money would be administered by the federal government, instead of going in large part into state insurance systems.

EQUALITY IN TAXING IS SEEN IN MEASURE

WASHINGTON, March 30.—(AP)—An administration spokesman told the house ways and means committee today its revenue program would advance the principle of tax equity but would not "fully cover the needs for additional revenue" outlined by President Roosevelt.

Guy T. Helvering, commissioner of internal revenue, was the first witness on the tax report drafted by a ways and means sub-committee as the basis of hearings after Mr. Roosevelt recommended new levies to meet bonus payment and farm relief costs.

He said the additional revenues that would be obtained by revision of the present corporate tax structure would result in the removal of inequality, discrimination, and tax avoidance, and "will come mainly from members of the upper income groups of our population."

FARMERS' MEETINGS CALLED OVER STATE

BATON ROUGE, La., March 30.—(AP)—Meetings will be held in 57 parishes Wednesday at 1:30 p.m. to explain the new federal soil conservation and domestic allotment plan to the state's farmers.

E. R. Strahan, Ouachita parish agricultural agent, announced Monday that a parish-wide meeting will be held here at the courthouse Wednesday at 1:30 p.m. as a part of the state program to explain the new plan. About 15 community meetings will be held over the parish for the same purpose, Mr. Strahan said.

LAST HOPE LIES WITH TRIBUNAL

Col. Mark O. Kimberling, warden of the state prison, where Hauptmann awaits death, was in the conference room.

COURT NOT EXPECTED TO REVERSE RULING

(By Associated Press)

The New Jersey court of pardons convened to consider Bruno Richard Hauptmann's second appeal to the court, 33 hours before his scheduled execution for murdering the Lindbergh baby. The court was not expected to change its previous refusal to grant clemency.

Paul H. Wendel, once disbarred as a lawyer, repudiated a "confession" of the crime. He still was held at Trenton under a murder charge, but the county prosecutor said he was convinced there was nothing to warrant prosecution. Wendel said he was "tortured" into confessing.

Gaston B. Means, imprisoned Lindbergh case hoaxer, also "confessed" he kidnaped and killed the baby. Department of justice agents said his statements were worthless.

Governor Harold G. Hoffman of New Jersey, concededly without power to again reprieve Hauptmann, issued a statement criticizing Hauptmann's trial.

The possibility developed of discussion of the Hauptmann case in the legislature tonight with a view to an investigation.

Mrs. Hauptmann made ready for what might be her final visit to her husband's death cell.

TWO OTHER MEN FALL UNDER SHADOW

(Copyright, 1936, by Associated Press)

TRENTON, N. J., March 30.—The long shadow of the Lindbergh baby murder fell across two more men today even as the court of pardons met to consider the mercy plea of the condemned third—Bruno Richard Hauptmann.

One of the new figures in the increasingly bewildering case—the middle-aged, clergyman's son, Paul H. Wendel—was held in jail here. A formal charge of having murdered the baby was filed against him, but he issued a statement denying any knowledge of the crime, and the county prosecutor said he, too, was convinced there was nothing to warrant prosecution.

The other man—Gaston B. Means, former federal agent and now a federal prisoner for having fleeced Mrs. Evalyn Walsh McLean by pretending to be an intermediary in ransom negotiations with the Lindbergh baby kidnapers—stood self-accused by a "confession," purportedly penned in his Leavenworth penitentiary cell.

The focus of interest, however, burned with increasing brightness upon the principal figure, Bruno Richard Hauptmann, despite the sudden injection of the new characters into the case. The question to be answered either by the court of pardons or by Governor Harold G. Hoffman was whether Hauptmann would die as scheduled at 8 o'clock tomorrow night.

The court of pardons was not expected to change its former attitude, which was against clemency. The governor professedly was without power to interfere, his power of reprieve having expired; but there were many today who believed that he might find a way, if the pardons court failed, to extend the prisoner's life again.

The bizarre drama that found preparations being made to execute Hauptmann while the others were in widely separated cells, one directly charged with the crime another "confessing" it, was made even more weird and confusing by the conflict of official opinion concerning the new developments.

TO INITIATE BIG CLASS APRIL 19

The Knights of Columbus of Monroe will send a large class to Vicksburg, Miss., for initiation on April 19, it was announced Monday by L. H. Krogmire, grand knight.

He also stated that lodges located in Natchez, Greenville and Jackson, Miss., will also send candidates and it is planned to hold one of the largest and most impressive ceremonies conducted there in a long time.

Efforts are now being exerted to secure a large class from Monroe and at a meeting to be held Tuesday night it is proposed to work out plans for the event.

A membership campaign, as planned by the supreme council of the order in New Haven, Conn., calls for the full cooperation of each and every member of each council in the entire nation. As planned by the national group, members will be divided into teams of 10 men to a team.

Mr. Krogmire stated that this plan will be followed in Monroe and he is anxious to have a large attendance present on Tuesday night.

BLAST IN ORLEANS WRECKS 5 BUILDINGS

NEW ORLEANS, March 30.—(AP)—An investigation was carried on today into an explosion and fire which wrecked or damaged five buildings and injured four persons here last night. Loss was estimated by police at $20,000.

The blast, of undetermined origin, occurred in a vacant building on Magazine street between Louisiana avenue and Toledano street. Residences and other structures in a radius of several blocks were shaken by the force of the explosion.

Two women, Mrs. Lawrence Hudson, Jr., 25 and Mrs. Hugh Beatty, 38, standing in front of the vacant building, were cut by glass. Others injured, but not seriously, were Elodie Lincks and Philip Corvers.

Buildings damaged by fire followed the explosion were Fuhr's bakery, Krilov's furniture store, Charlie's laundry, a fruit stand, a doughnut shop and a confectionery.

A crowd in a nearby theater which started to rush for the exits after hearing the blast was quieted by the manager.

MANY CITIES WANT SUSPECT IN ORLEANS

NEW ORLEANS, March 30.—(AP)—Numerous cities today sought custody of a man listed as Lyle Gilbert, 24, of Bay City, Mich., who was arrested here yesterday by John Grosch, chief of detectives.

Grosch said Gilbert admitted escaping from the Bay City jail and robbing and stealing to make his way to New Orleans to enjoy the southern weather.

Grosch said Gilbert stole an automobile in Tinconning, Mich., $28 in cash and a pistol and then successively robbed places in Franklin, Tenn., Foxworth, Miss., and Collins, Miss. Gilbert was quoted as saying he stole another car in Baton Rouge, La.

Grosch said that when news of Gilbert's arrest "goes up the Mississippi valley" he expects "a lot" more robberies will be solved.

Grosch took a pistol, hacksaw, jimmies and a flashlight from Gilbert when he arrested him in an automobile bearing a Michigan license plate.

Charity Induced By Fear

A great many bowls of soup have slid across the counter since this country began feeding its depression victims. Billions of dollars have been spent to keep people from starvation. But somehow, with all this, we do not seem to have come very much closer to a realization of our common brotherhood.

Monsignor Fulton J. Sheen of New York touched on this point very sensibly in a recent Lenten sermon in the metropolis. To him, the dismaying thing about our relief expenditures has been the fact that men are being urged to care for the poor, not for the salvation of their souls, but "in order to save their hides."

"In England," he remarked, "you hear frequently the admonition to support the unemployed classes to ward off a revolution which would be disastrous to the affluent. And the same philosophy is heard increasingly in America. No word is spoken about man's responsibility to man, nor about the solidarity of society under God."

In other words, our relief work represents a policy of applied selfishness rather than one of brotherly compassion. Give the jobless man a bowl of soup—not because he is your brother man, and is suffering in a way to touch your heart, but because, if he goes hungry too long, he is apt to get up on hind legs and start smashing things; that seems to be the theory on which it works.

All this may make little difference to the man who is on relief. A bowl of soup probably tastes about the same when it is given because of fear as it does when a genuine feeling of social responsibility prompts the gift. It is the giver who suffers.

For this kind of giving—life insurance giving, you might call it—is merely a reflection of a society which somehow has managed to mislay its soul. The decade of the '20's was a time of out-and-out materialism. Its watchword was the traditional jibe of the hungry sailor at the mess kit—"Blow you, Jack, I got mine."

Good things don't come out of an atmosphere such as that. As Monsignor Sheen pointed out, in that era it was only natural that "the wealthy should exploit the masses, and that communistic governments should attempt to remedy the maldistribution of wealth under capitalism by taking away wealth from everybody.

The depression ought to have been enough to jar us loose from that materialistic outlook. It should have brought us to the point where we would help our brother man because he is our brother man, and not because we are afraid of what he may do if we don't help him.

Until we do in fact get to that point, we shan't be able to say that we have recovered from the blighting psychology of the boom era.

On The Hip

Once again, has a moot question been judiciously determined.

The scene was a Brooklyn magistrate's courtroom. A restaurant proprietor and a policeman were the principals. The former was charged with violating the liquor law by having a bottle of hard liquor on his premises whereas his license permitted the sale of nothing stronger than beer.

The policeman alleged that the accused had a half-pint bottle of liquor in one hand and a small glass in the other and, that when detected in this heinous violation of the law stowed both bottle and glass in his hip pocket.

The magistrate promptly gave his ruling. It was that the hip pocket is not any part of "the premises" and accordingly he dismissed the case.

And thus another milestone was passed since the day not so long ago when to tote a bottle of liquor on the hip or anywhere else constituted a high crime and misdemeanor.

A ruling such as this adds to the gayety of the day. Even those who do not approve of the sale of liquor will doubtless find in it a dry chuckle. The moral is obvious. If you are going to bootleg liquor in Brooklyn, dispense it from a flask.

Charlie Chaplin

Charlie Chaplin is more elusive today than he was twenty years ago, when he was making two-reel comedy shorts, or even when the shorts had blossomed into those full-length comedies which were among the funniest things man has ever been privileged to see. There is almost a full generation of younger movie-goers who have seen him no more than once or twice. Some of them have never seen Charlie Chaplin at all. How strange that seems!

They will never, of course, see him just as he was in "Shoulder Arms" or "The Kid." Charlie Chaplin has changed with the years. He is concerned with other things than the simple business of being funny. But he is still very, very funny. He still is the great mimic, the master of pathos, the tender and humble and excruciating comic. He still wears the derby hat, the baggy pants, the small mustache. He still carries the Chaplin cane, and walks with the Charlie Chaplin walk.

He is still Charlie Chaplin, but a little more conscious of his art; and he has added satire to his comedy.

TAKE A LOOK AT SPRING

Winter has practically gone, and spring is not so far behind. Don't let anybody tell you that getting out into the woods or the fields is going to make you catch cold.

If you dress warmly, and keep your feet dry, you will be in far less danger of catching cold in the open than there is in a hot oppressive room. Get a pair of skis and travel around a little over the receding snow drifts. It will do you a lot of good, and if you dry yourself when you get home you will feel like a fighting cock.

Keep a watch out for homing birds.

I saw two robins in my garden the other day, and they were apparently quite contented. The song sparrows have of course been here all winter. But they, like all divas, are careful of their throats, so you will not hear them sing, just yet.

But they will sing, and not before so very long.

Soon you will be able to watch the various feathered housewives, and sometimes househusbands, getting ready for the big Bird Show. The robins are usually the first comers, but the little wrens are not far behind them.

Very particular, these mites are. Every vestige of previous occupancy of an old nest must be got rid of before a new nest will be constructed.

High overhead the blue jay is working. He is not much afraid of robbers, for he is one himself; but he is usually on the job to help mother with the nest building.

If you really like outdoors get yourself a small telescope and take a good long look at it and its denizens every morning before you go to work.

Activity is everywhere.

The orioles have found somewhere an old and badly torn stocking, and are busy carrying away threads from it. By and by, if you are watchful, you will see sections of that stocking woven into the lofty nest which the orioles always build.

Good builders these birds must be, because they choose high branches for their swinging homes.

A little later in the season you may see what to me is one of the most interesting of all wild life—wild ducklings following in the wake of their mothers.

I may be accused of rushing the season in looking so far ahead, but I get so much fun out of looking at spring in all its phases, that I don't want my readers to miss any of it.

WHEN LIFE IS DONE

Go to that last long rendezvous
When life is done.
As earth when summer's heat is gone,
The cold begun

That bids the final leaf turn brown,
The field no more
Yield fruit and grain, the birds sing high
Their mystic lore.

See what she does, Old Earth . . . she makes
A festival
Of splendor, and each hill she decks,
Each garden wall,

Where leaves have lent their shade . . . all things . . .
She calls to go
Into the night, with festival,
With beauty's glow!

'Tis but a sleep, a rest, a dream—
Oh, man, take heed,
Your death the same . . . go to it then
From old fears freed.

HAPPINESS

Baggs—Happy are they who look before they marry.
Boggs—Yes, and overlook after.

TO DISTINGUISH HER POSITION

Mrs. Cuddleton—I don't approve of a wife drawing a salary as her husband's housekeeper. That would make a servant of her.

Mrs. Hiram Bowser—Not exactly. She wouldn't have to give him a week's notice of her intention to leave him.

HIS ENVIRONS DIDN'T AFFECT HIM

She—I'm sure the surroundings are the deciding factor in character development.

He—Not always. I've known an old fellow who for twenty years rode a water sprinkling cart, yet he was a chronic whisky soak.

SOME SUPPOSITION

"This is a cold day for July."

"This isn't July. What's wrong with ya?"

"I know it, but supposing it was it would be pretty cold."

NO CHANCE TO RELAX

Mr. Bowser—I'm sorry, but it's impossible for me to give you three weeks' vacation at the present time.

Bookkeeper—Then, perhaps, you could give me a little advance pay so that I can send my wife away. I must have some rest!

Second Rube—Thirty quarts.

Who Says Machines Cause Unemployment?

They Call It Politics

By CARTER FIELD

WASHINGTON—The proposed excise taxes, which, levied on 33 commodities, were calculated to raise $221,000,000 a year, are not dead. They are just pushed under the pile for a few days. In fact, the best judgment on Capitol hill and in the treasury department is that they will not only be revived, but will be increased.

Treasury experts have been working on this whole problem for months. They know very accurately what can and what cannot be done in the way of raising revenue. They concede that if congress would enact the tax plan as proposed by President Roosevelt it would raise enough revenue. The point is that they know congress will never enact it without so many exemptions and loopholes that it would not produce anything like the revenue required.

Moreover, the president did not contemplate enactment of the tax plan without the excise taxes. So that, in addition to writing in all kinds of exemptions, the proposal of the Hill subcommittee would strike $221,000,000 of annual revenue from the bill.

There is a further element which puts the whole house subcommittee program into red ink, the treasury experts privately point out. This is that the committee counts on $100,000,000 from the "windfall" tax. No one in the treasury has ever really taken that tax seriously. As a matter of fact treasury experts do not think the president had figured on it seriously as a revenue raiser. Its purpose was far more propaganda than as a money producer.

It was intended to hold up before the country the interests that profited from the supreme court decision invalidating the AAA and outlawing the processing taxes.

Constitutional difficulties of actually collecting the tax are something else again, and so the treasury experts who figured out the tax schedules just put that to one side, as far as any reliance on revenue was concerned.

Meanwhile the hearings scheduled by the house committee, and those which will follow when the measure gets before the senate finance committee, will riddle the whole idea that a change in the corporation taxes will produce the needed revenue without that very substantial part of the whole tax scheme which the president himself included, the excise taxes.

It has been no secret from the first that the senate would rewrite the whole bill. Members of the house admit that freely. Administration leaders in the senate like Pat Harrison, chairman of the finance committee, will do their best to follow the president's ideas as closely as possible.

Expectation has been all along that in order to make sure of enough money, they would be forced to retain the present corporation levies in whole or in part—the tax on all net earnings of corporations, now 15 per cent on all corporations of any size, the capital stock tax, and the excess profits tax. In fact, there has been a strong tendency to save all these taxes, intact, and add on enough of the tax on undistributed earnings idea of the president to make up the additional amount needed.

This additional amount, by the way, is roughly $792,000,000 a year, less whatever is raised by processing taxes and the windfall taxes.

TO BLACK TOP MORE STREETS

Two West Monroe Thoroughfares Will Be Given Surfacing

Black top paving will be laid on Coleman and Montgomery avenues in West Monroe from the end of the present paving to the Jonesboro road, starting immediately, it was announced here over the week-end.

This announcement came shortly after a trip by West Monroe men to Baton Rouge had been made for a conference with Governor James A. Noe and A. P. Tugwell, chairman of the state highway commission. Those making the trip were Mayor C. C. Bell, Fred R. Mitchell, G. W. Welch and Judge Decker Moore. The purpose of the visit was to urge certain street improvements for West Monroe.

The group asked to have Coleman and Montgomery avenues black topped and Cypress street paved from Vernon to the city limits. While the black topping will start at once, the paving work will probably not be initiated until June, it was said.

The paving projects are embraced in the year's work of the West Monroe Kiwanis club.

New Idea Of Cancer

As Outlined In Bulletins Of The American Society For The Control Of Cancer, New York

X-Rays And Radium In Cancer

Radium and x-rays are among the most useful agents in the treatment of cancer. They are employed to effect a cure and they are used to relieve the suffering and extend the lives of incurable patients. Often they are employed to give help when it is too late for cure. Sometimes surgery and x-rays or radium are employed together.

There is no great difference between the effects produced by radium and x-rays. In either case the object is the destruction of the cancer. The healthy parts surrounding the cancer are to be left unaffected.

In a well-equipped hospital choice between x-rays and radium depends upon the peculiarities of the case to be treated. Among these is the accessibility of the cancer. In cancer of the tongue, for example, radium is more conveniently used than x-rays.

X-rays and radium are to be regarded as tools. They are like the surgeon's tools and other instruments and procedures employed in medicine. They have no magical properties which physicians of good standing recognize. In skillful hands they are among the most helpful resources. Unscrupulous persons who are willing to trade upon the credulity of cancer victims sometimes make absurd claims for radium. These lead to disastrous results. Both radium and x-rays, when carelessly and ignorantly handled, may aggravate and even cause cancer, as has unfortunately too often been found out by scientific men. The story of Bergonie, who did so much to cure cancer in others, only to succumb himself to cancer induced by x-rays, is tragic.

The Time To Cure A Cancer Is When It Is Beginning.

If you think you have any of the symptoms described in these articles you should be examined by your doctor or at a hospital at once.

DEAN COLVERT AND STUDENTS RETURN

Dean C. C. Colvert of Northeast Center of Louisiana State university returned late Saturday night with a group of students who had attended the annual convention at Independence, Kans., of the Phi Theta Kappa, junior college honor scholastic society. Those who made the trip with the dean in the latter's car were Luther Reed, Dawson Kennedy, Eleanor McKenzie, Neva Worthington and Katherine Cox.

The 600-mile trip from Monroe to Independence was made in each instance in a single day. On the way north, the party proceeded by way of Fort Smith and Tulsa, while returning, they came by way of Joplin, Fayetteville and home through the Ozark mountain region.

Luther Reed was the delegate from the local chapter and served on the nominating committee. Dawson Kennedy was honored by being named national treasurer.

Dean Colvert said that the convention was highly enjoyable. Fully 70 chapters were represented.

This was the first time that the local chapter has had representation at a national convention of this nature.

NEGRO RECOVERING AFTER HEART GASHED

ATLANTA, March 30.—(AP)—Jones Knight, 22-year-old negro, was reported on the way to recovery early today after two Grady hospital doctors had closed a wound in his heart with 11 stitches.

The negro was brought to the hospital last night with an ice pick wound in his heart. Drs. Don C. Elkins and Carl Garver gained access to the organ by sawing away two ribs and closed a gash in the left ventricle with three stitches and repaired the pericardium, or outer covering with eight more.

IN NEW YORK

By GEORGE ROSS

NEW YORK.—On random rounds: Any day now, Dexter Fellowes, spring's sure harbinger, will be in town to herald the circus, and Fifth avenue shops have already set out their Easter displays. And so the old greatcoat will be immunized against moths today.

A serious-faced fan, I see by Variety, stepped up to Major Bowes the other day and asked why, since the major counted his listeners in the millions, he does not run for the presidency of the United States. "Because," the major is supposed to have replied, "I can't spare the time . . ."

I've been in to see the latest additions of Jules Charbneaus' collection of smallest things. M. Charbneau spends every spare moment of his life, searching objects of all kinds in miniature and is proudest now of the strand of human hair with his name inscribed upon it. But he's also added the smallest check on the world's largest bank, a draft for one mill, a tenth of a cent, on the Chase National . . . and a miniature of the S. S. Normandie that fits into the shell of a walnut; and a practical razor, one inch long.

What is the average walking distance of an average waiter in a fairly busy restaurant? According to Joseph Till of the Radio City eateries, about four miles per day.

Original Humor

According to an ether expert with whom I conferred the other day, 97 per cent of all radio gags, jests and epigrams can be traced back to one joke book or another, starting with Joe Miller's.

In his frequent visits to his New York town house, President Roosevelt has never arrived by the same route from the station. Secret service men plan the short auto trip in advance but conform with traffic rules.

Twenty of the late "Flo" Ziegfeld's showgirls, now scattered about town, met at a cocktail party in the Stork club the other afternoon to form a permanent sorority. Mary Alice Rice, one of the great glorifier's proudest exhibits, and now a dramatic actress, is the ringleader.

Audiences who saw George M. Cohan in his last show, "Dear Old Darling," noticed that the Song & Dance Man sported on his index finger, a two-diamond sparkler, bright enough to illuminate a corner of a room. Audiences in fact have noticed this same ring upon George Cohan's finger for at least forty years. It was given to him by his father. And Irving Berlin has a little, rattle-bang piano that he packs along on all his trips and which occupies a prominent place in his New York home. It is the piano whereon he first executed "Alexander's Ragtime Band." That was 25 years ago.

Harmonious Partners

The only cooperative dance band in the country is the Casa Loma orchestra now at the Rainbow room. The musicians have no boss, but all of them own shares in the organization and all business matters are settled by majority vote. Glen Gray is director of the band but does not wield the baton. He doesn't because he is a skilled saxophone player and can do more good by sitting down and blowing the last valve down. He lets the violinist wave his G-string over the men.

Hollywood Close-Ups

By PAUL HARRISON

The motion picture industry is making a gesture toward payment of its debt to the people who made the motion picture industry.

I mean that more old-timers are going to be given jobs. The Producers' association has agreed that, through the individual studios, it will do what it can toward re-employment of once-illustrious performers who have slipped into the extra ranks and, even further, into the relief rolls.

It would be difficult to estimate just how much pure altruism is involved in this move, because most of the old-timers are by no means hams when it comes to putting over character bits in the talkies.

Many a veteran of the gilt-and-plush era can be put under contract for $30 a week, and be glad to get it, so the chances are that even the more benevolent studios will get their money back.

In fairness to the bustling young industry, it should be observed that a few of the ex-stars are really more trouble than they're worth in cold cash. For nothing is less destructible than a trouper's pride, and it's hard for a celebrity of 1916 to admit that he or she is a hasbeen of 1936. Some of them mugg, or over-act, when they face cameras today. Some are temperamental. A few have cracked voices which sound pretty terrible in a burst of histrionics.

Remember These?

A good many columns ago I mentioned several of the veterans now under contract to Warner Brothers—Paul Panzer, the "Perils of Pauline" heavy; Leo White, the comedian; Jacqueline Saunders, another former star. Others are Andre Beranger and Tom Wilson, both funnymen; Stuart Holmes, Pauline Garon, and Clara Horton, former child star.

Filming "San Francisco," M-G-M is using Jean Acker, first wife of Valentino; Gertrude Astor, "best-dressed" star of 1919; Rosemary Theby, most prominent about 1911; Frank Mayo, of earliest Universal days; and Fritzi Brunette, of the early '20s.

New Chapter

Maybe you remember Helen Holmes, of Keystone, Kalem, and other once-famous companies. "The Hazards of Helen" was her greatest cliff-hanger serial. Well, she's back in Hollywood and playing in the W. C. Fields picture, "Poppy." She and her cowboy husband have been following the rodeos for years.

Incidentally, the director who gave her this job, Eddie Sutherland, once was her stunt-double, doing dangerous tricks which the fans thought were performed by Hazardous Helen.

GOVERNOR NOE IS GIVEN HONOR

Forty And Eight Holds Banquet, Presents Executive Smock

Governor James A. Noe, honor guest of a banquet on the roof of Hotel Heidelberg at Baton Rouge, Saturday night, was presented with a smock by the members of voiture local 340 of the Forty and Eight. A group of voyaguers from the Monroe unit attended. They were Charles Mitchell, Sam Orchard and Sam Rubin.

State officers were present, not only from Louisiana, but also from Mississippi and Arkansas.

Ray Mobley, as general chairman, acted as toastmaster. The address of welcome was delivered by Frank G. Rieger, chef de gare, and the response was made by James C. Casserly, sous de chemin de fer.

Ernest L. Hawkins, grand chef de gare, delivered an address on "The Forty and Eight," while "Forty and Eight Activities" was the basis of an address by B. L. Spann, cheminot nationale.

The main address of the night was delivered by Governor Noe. At the close of his talk, Jack Sichtermann, commander of the Louisiana department of the American Legion, talked on "The Legion and the Forty and Eight."

Introduction of visitors and distinguished guests closed this part of the program, but there were entertainment features that rounded out the evening's pleasure.

Those who participated in the entertainment were: Pianist and accompanist, Mrs. M. H. Hokenson; dance duet, Misses Marie and Juliette Bonnette; song, Miss Hilda Hokenson; fast tap, Miss Carolyn Mobley; song, Mrs. Alice Ruth Bourg; character dance, Miss Marie Bonnette; song, Mrs. Patsy Lee Le Fleur; modernistic dance, Miss Juliette Bonnette.

OFFICERS SEEK NOTE SENDERS

Life Of Daughter Of Macon Ridge Planter Threatened

DELHI, La., March 30.—(Special)—Officers believe they have a definite clue as to the identity of the persons who left two notes under the door of the home of Rufe Phillips, Macon Ridge planter, threatening the life of his 14-year-old daughter, Frances.

While Phillips and Arthur and Albert Kennedy, two brothers-in-law, were setting some hooks in the Tensas river near here early Saturday night, the first note was found under the screen door telling the women to vacate the house in a few minutes or they would be sorry.

One note said in part; "I'm going to kill Frances and put her blood on the door. I tried last night and unhooked the screen but couldn't raise the window, but I am going to get her if it takes a week, and I am going to kill her."

Besides Mrs. Phillips and children, the wives of the Kennedy brothers were in the house when the notes were placed there. Examination of the screen window showed that it had been tampered with and a hole made by a sharp instrument was evident. The hook was loose.

The sheriff's department in Rayville is working on the case, and Phillips said today that he is confident the culprits will be caught in the next day or two. Phillips said that it could not have been a joke, nor could it have been any love affair, as the girl had never had but one date in her life, and then in company with a number of other children.

It was also said that the life of James Walker, a youth about 16, had also been threatened.

A man was said to have gone about one hundred yards from the house after the last note had been placed under the door and, after about half an hour, had driven off in an automobile. Neighbors came to the house and the father was summoned, but nothing definite was learned until this morning.

MOTORMAN ROBBED BY TWO MEN HERE

Police Monday were continuing an investigation of the robbery in which $12.75 was taken from H. S. Harrison, street car motorman, by two men who boarded his car shortly before midnight Saturday at the end of the Lee avenue run.

One of the hold-up men was described as being five feet in height, weighing 140 pounds and wearing leather boots, a white shirt and white hat. The other was described as about five feet and eight inches in height, weighing 175 pounds and wearing a blue serge suit and white hat.

Harrison reported to police that the men boarded the car at the end of the run and sat down on the first seat behind him. "I started the car and the little man jumped up and stuck a gun in my side and told me to get the money out of the changer as quick as I could, and that if anybody tried to get on at the next stop they would kill me if I picked any passenger up," Harrison said.

The robbers left the car at Egan street, two blocks from the end of the line.

S. J. WALL EXPIRES AT RESIDENCE HERE

S. J. Wall, 86, resident of West Monroe for many years, died about 9 o'clock Monday morning at his residence, 902 Montgomery avenue, West Monroe. Mr. Wall was a planter, operating a farm in Union parish.

Surviving relatives are two sons and seven daughters. The sons are W. F. Wall and C. G. Wall, both of West Monroe. The daughters are Mrs. Will Lastor, Mrs. Joe Alexander, Mrs. Dale McClelland, Mrs. J. G. Haynes and Mrs. L. W. Cobb, all of West Monroe, Mrs. Bob Howard of Winnsboro and Mrs. Leon Malone of Baskin.

Funeral services will be held at the family residence Tuesday morning at 8:30 o'clock. Rev. E. E. Huntsberry, pastor of the West Monroe First Baptist church, will officiate. Interment will be made at the Rocky Branch cemetery in Union parish at 11 a.m.

Pallbearers will be R. L. Ewing, J. M. Spillars, Preston Poties, Simon Soignier, L. C. Furlow and W. H. "Doc" Moore.

SUGGEST FIREPLUGS ON DIXIE-OVERLAND

Installation of fireplugs at regular intervals along the Dixie-Overland highway between the West Monroe city wells and the municipal limits of that city, are proposed. It is said that the plan will in all probability be adopted by the mayor and board of aldermen of West Monroe at the next meeting.

It is proposed to locate one plug a short distance west of the city limits, while another is suggested for location near the Ira L. Brooks place. Other locations are under consideration.

If the fireplugs are approved, property owners would bear the cost of material and labor, while the water would be furnished by the city.

SWARTZ NEGRO DIES AT CHURCH SERVICE

Willie Haney, negro, 47, of Swartz, died suddenly Sunday night while attending a service at a negro church near Swartz. Coroner C. L. Mengis, after making an investigation, reported death resulted from natural causes.

Lightning does not flash but builds up in a series of steps which have been photographed.

thus has established her place in the hearts of the public. Her charm of personality also contributes in no small degree toward the success of the sessions of the cooking schools.

Not only will practical demonstrations of cooking and other phases of culinary activities be given, but also various labor-saving devices will be shown. A comprehensive display of these devices will be on exhibition.

Valuable prizes will be given each day, according to past custom. They will be contributed by merchants of Monroe and West Monroe. More than 100 "surprise" awards will be made during the three days. On Thursday night, the grand prize will be awarded.

Special bus service will be operated by the Municipal street railway to provide transportation for many persons. These buses will leave DeSiard street at 1 p.m. and at frequent subsequent intervals. A night service will be provided Thursday. Regular buses also wil lmake a detour so as to carry passengers direct to the Neville High School auditorium each afternoon.

SIX PERSONS ARE INJURED IN COLLISIONS

also residents of West Monroe, received bruises.

The Mitchell car was badly damaged. The front end of the other car was damaged.

In West Monroe, an automobile driven by Herman G. Gibbs, operator of a tent and awning company at Shreveport, struck Billie Scruggs, 10-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Scruggs, 1108 North Third street, West Monroe, about 4:30 p.m. in the 1100 block of Cypress street. The boy suffered general abrasions on his arms, friction burns, a wound on his right leg and an injury to his left leg. He is a patient at St. Francis sanitarium.

Reports To Police

Gibbs reported to West Monroe police that the boy suddenly ran out in front of his car from behind a truck. Police, after investigating the accident, said that it apparently was unavoidable.

Mrs. L. A. Breard, 710 Riverside, suffered numerous bruises, a cut on her head, cuts on two fingers and shock, in a collision of two automobiles Sunday at 6:10 p.m. at the intersection of Catalpa and Oak streets. She remained a patient Monday at the St. Francis sanitarium. Her son, Lawrence Breard, suffered minor bruises in the accident.

At the time of the accident, Lawrence Breard was driving south on Catalpa and the other car in the collision, driven by Miss Peggy Holland of Bastrop, was proceeding east on Oak, according to reports of the drivers to police. Miss Holland said in her report that she did not see the Breard car in time to avert the accident because of a high brick wall at the northwest corner of the intersection.

No charges were filed in any of the three accidents.

AMATEUR UNIT PLAYS IN CITY

soprano; Art Waldman, novelty musician; Lucille and Dorothy Van Zandt, the accordion duettists; Marilyn Peters and Norma Sonia, in vocal and dance numbers.

All of the group were given an enthusiastic reception by the appreciative audiences.

An added feature of the program was the appearance of a group of local amateurs who presented an interesting series of numbers and elicited warm applause. Those who took part in this phase of the production were: Mary Turk and Lorraine Peddy, acrobatic duo; Mary Wilba McKee, acrobatic dancer; Willie Nettles, throat whistler; June Hunt, song and tap dancer; Harry Snow, whistler; Zola Mae Gossett, tap dancer; Christine Galloway, songs and dancing. The Brown Paper Mill harmonica band also gave several numbers.

Prior to the main program, the audience listened to the Major Bowes regular Sunday night broadcast from New York, in which the famed announcer told of the honor conferred on him by Governor James A. Noe in making Major Bowes honorary governor of Louisiana.

LOCAL V. F. W. POST WILL MEET TONIGHT

Special meetings of the Rodney J. Hobbs post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, and the post auxiliary will be held tonight at 7:30 o'clock at the post headquarters corner of Hall and Harrison streets.

Classes of recruits will be obligated by the post and the auxiliary.

Overseas veterans and their wives who are not members of the V. F. W. and its auxiliary are invited to be present.

PAUL SUGGS SOUGHT BY ARKANSAS WIFE

Authorities in both Arkansas and Louisiana have been asked by Mrs. Paul Suggs of Arkadelphia, Ark., to help locate her husband, Paul Suggs, 35, who has been missing nearly four weeks.

Suggs left his home to go to Camden to look for work at the paper mill but later wrote his wife that he had failed to find employment and that he would go to Louisiana in an effort to obtain work in the kraft mills located at Hodge, Bastrop or West Monroe.

Mrs. Suggs is fearful that misfortune has overtaken her husband. He is described as being five feet, nine inches tall, as having brown eyes, dark curly hair and as wearing a blue serge coat and blue overalls. He is said to limp slightly, due to the fact that he once sustained a fractured leg.

The couple have five children.

ASTOUNDING OF WORLD IS SEEN

staffs of Great Britain, France and Belgium if Hitler sees fit to accept the Locarno treaty powers' proposals for a Rhineland settlement.

French officials indicated that France wanted to ask Hitler for direct answers to various questions before any further negotiations could be undertaken. Mainly, it was indicated, France wants to know what guarantees it could have that Germany would not violate a new treaty.

The Nazis in Germany, jubilant over receiving 99 per cent of the votes cast in the national election, intimated that Hitler would "astound the world" by new proposals to France, Belgium, Great Britain and Italy, the signatories of the Locarno pact.

Italy, remaining silent on the German question, continued busy with the war against Ethiopia. Her high command in East Africa reported further troop advances and the bombing of Harar, second city of Ethiopia.

The Rome report, which stated merely that Harar had been bombed by 33 airplanes "with visible efficacy," was enlarged upon by the Ethiopian government in Addis Ababa.

The Ethiopians claimed that the Italians had directed many of their bombs against hospitals and French centers and that the damage to non-combatant centers was large.

Among the bomb targets, according to the Ethiopians, was an Ethiopian Red Cross hospital, a French religious mission, the French consulate and an Ethiopian prison.

The useful life of a modern airplane varies from 5 to 10 years.

"Of course I picked MONROE favorite, OMEGA FLOUR FOR THE NEWS-STAR---WORLD COOKING SCHOOL"
Says MRS. KATE B. STAFFORD

"It possesses such marvelous baking quality and I enjoy working with a flour of this high grade and character. It makes baking a pleasure and an almost foregone success. I can heartily recommend Omega to any woman interested in better baking."

THE wheat that goes into Omega is so selected that not one bushel out of every ten grown is of a grade fine enough for it. Only the best part of each wheat berry becomes Omega Flour. Omega is milled so fine that it is sifted through silk to nearly 30 times the fineness of ordinary flour.

Milled in washed air and rigidly tested in scientific ovens, Omega always brings you the same dependable baking qualities. It's as fine a flour as you can put in your kitchen. Almost any good grocer has Omega, either plain or self-rising, in the regular sized sacks shown below. Why not try Omega in the new, convenient, inexpensive Handipak Package—a smaller size for the convenience of small homes. Ask your grocer for Omega today.

TOURNAMENT IS BEING PLANNED

Annual Volley Ball Matches To Be Held At Crosley School

Plans are being formulated by the Ouachita parish elementary schools for the annual volley ball tournament at Crosley school on Saturday, April 25, according to an announcement made by Mrs. Chrissie Williams, supervisor of elementary education.

For the first time this year, another class will be introduced in competition and an extra trophy will be awarded.

The cups, over which competition existed in past years, will again be made the basis of competitions, and in addition, schools of less than the six grades will compete for a cup offered in competitions from which the larger schools are barred, Mrs. Williams said. This will offer an opportunity for all the schools of the parish to "cop the cup."

At virtually all schools in the parish, squads of boys and girls are daily practicing volley ball and it is expected that some expert playing will result when the contests are held.

As is the usual custom, play will begin early in the day and will continue with only slight interruptions until every team except the winners of the silver loving cups have been eliminated.

Drew now holds the school cup awarded to the best team of boys, and the girls' team of Eureka school holds the cup in that division. A team must win the cup for three successive years to gain permanent possession of the trophy.

How to Relieve Headache In Three Minutes

Now when you have one of those violent, nerve-racking headaches, from inorganic causes, you can get soothing relief in three minutes with "B. C.," a reliable, pleasant-to-take remedy. "B. C." is prepared by a registered pharmacist, compounded on a different principle from most relief-giving agencies in that it contains several ingredients so blended and proportioned as to accomplish in a few minutes what we believe no one drug formula can do in so short a time. "B. C." should also be used for the relief of muscular aches and pains, common colds and neuralgia; for reducing fever and quieting a distressed nervous system without opiates, narcotics or such habit-forming drugs. Get "B. C." in 10c and 25c packages, wherever drugs are sold. (adv.)

COLONEL HUNT

C. A. Hunt, commander of the Rodney J. Hobbs post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, of Monroe, Monday received a special delivery letter from Governor James A. Noe informing him that a commission making him an honorary colonel on the governor's staff was being made out. Commander Hunt has held more offices in the Louisiana organization of Veterans of Foreign Wars than any other man. He has served as commander of the Louisiana department, senior vice-commander of the department, and department chief-of-staff. He has served two terms as adjutant of the local post and is now serving his fourth term as post commander.

HELENA, Ark., March 30.—(AP)—With an 11 to 3 victory over the Helena Seaporters to their credit, Doc Prothro's Little Rock Travelers continued their invasion of Cotton States league circles today at Greenville, Miss.

The Travelers trek to Clarksdale Tuesday and return to Helena Wednesday.

With Liberto and Nonnenkamp showing the way with three hits each, the Pebbles garnered 17 safeties off the offerings of Kerseick and Scheusler, two teammates loaned the Seaporters, in yesterday's initial exhibition of the season.

MEMPHIS, Tenn.—The Chicks and Toledo Mudhens will both work out here today, but will not resume their exhibition series until tomorrow.

A team of Chick rookies yesterday blasted Mudhen pitchers to gain a seven to four victory. Dave Long, young Chick outfielder, continued on a hitting spree, getting two base blows out of two times at bat.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn.—The Knoxville Smokies tried their luck against major league competition today in an exhibition game with the Philadelphia Athletics.

The Smokies made it two straight over the House of David nine yesterday, 6 to 5, with Maxwell and Rhodes leading the assault.

The Athletics will remain here through Friday.

ATLANTA, Ga.—Atlanta's Crackers took things easy today after making it two in a row over the Philadelphia Athletics by beating the Mackmen here yesterday 4 to 3. The Southern association champions won 11 to 4 in a Saturday game.

Rotund little Bobby Durham worked seven innings against the major leaguers without allowing a hit or a run. One man got to first on a walk.

The A's molded three hits, a walk and a wild pitch into three runs off Williams and Miller in the eighth, but could not tie it up.

Harry Kelley, Cracker mound ace of last year, worked against his erstwhile mates, giving up seven hits and four runs in the seven innings he labored.

TALLAHASSEE, Fla.—The Nashville Vols today sought revenge as they met the Chattanooga Lookouts in the second of their four-game series.

Yesterday the Lookouts won, 5 to 1, Henry Bazner and Andy Messenger limiting the Vols to six hits.

The Vols have signed a young right-hander, Woodrow Davis, who has been working out this spring with the Cleveland Indians.

MOVE IS BEGUN AT HOT SPRINGS TO END RACING

Attorney General Contends Extension Past 30 Days Illegal

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., March 30.—(AP)—Attorney General Carl E. Bailey today sought to end the spring racing meet at Oaklawn Park, Hot Springs, through injunctive proceedings.

As entries and riders were posted for this afternoon's card at the track under an authority from the Arkansas State Racing commission which granted a permit for a six-day extension of the Hot Springs season, Bailey prepared a petition asking Chancellor Frank H. Dodge in the local chancery court to enjoin the permit as illegal.

Over the week-end, the attorney general in a formal statement requested arrest and prosecution of all persons participating in the proposed extension of track operations. The regular scheduled 30-day spring meet ended last Saturday.

"Everybody participating in it (the extension) is violating the law," Bailey said. "This is what comes of legalizing race track gambling under the guise of solving social problems. . . . Race track gambling is a congenial outlaw. Give it an inch and it takes a mile. Already it feels politically powerful enough to flaunt the law. It is the duty of the prosecuting attorney at Hot Springs to have those who participate in the extension of the meeting arrested and prosecuted."

Efforts to reach the prosecutor, Houston Emery, at Hot Springs for a statement brought the information that he was away in Texas and was not expected back for several days.

Gov. J. Marion Futrell commented: "Although I have not re-examined the law, it is my opinion that the track is entitled to 60 days of racing and that it chose to have 36 days in the current spring meet instead of having another meet next fall."

Douglas Hotchkiss, Hot Springs member of the racing commission, said the 1935 racing law entitled the track to 60 days operations a year and that under the fiscal year operations of the racing board the extension came within the law.

VIRGINIA UNIVERSITY ENDS BOXING SEASON

UNIVERSITY, Va., March 30.—(AP)—Boxing equipment was packed away until next season at the University of Virginia today while at other institutions the scrappers who qualified in the National Collegiate Athletic association tournament here Saturday for the final American Olympic team tryout planned to keep in training in quest of a trip to Germany.

Fighters from the east dominated the meet here by gaining five of the eight individual titles, leaving two for the south and one for the middle west. These together with the eight second place winners are eligible to enter the Olympic trials at Chicago in May.

The N. C. A. A. champs are Mickey Brutto, West Virginia, bantamweight; Bob Fadner, Wisconsin, featherweight; Frank Goodman, Penn State, light weight; Danny Farrar, Duke welterweight; Ford Fink, Syracuse, junior middlewieght; Ray Jeffries, Syracuse, middleweight; Ray Matulewicz, Duke, light-heavyweight, and Tom Pontecarvo, Western Maryland, heavyweight.

TRAINING CAMP BRIEFS

(By Associated Press)

ST. PETERSBURG.—Lefty Gomez, the Yankee pitcher, is wondering where he lost his stuff a couple years ago. He still has that fast one but his curves aren't what they used to be and he's far from being the marksman of yore. He has an idea things are going to be okay when he swings into league action, however.

CLEARWATER.—The Dodgers, it has been learned, have offered Joe Stripp to the Cards, the latter club having been interested in him and the Dodgers in some of the younger members of the Red Bird squad.

ALEXANDRIA—The knee that kept Bill Terry out of the Giants' lineup at Pensacola seems to be coming around all right. He made four hits in six times at bat in the last three games.

LAKELAND.—The Detroit Tigers today had declared a two-day armistice with outside teams in order to compete among themselves. During the next two days Manager Mickey Cochrane may decide where to apply the pruning knife.

LAKE WALES.—After seven straight wins, the Browns have lost three straight, taking a 13-1 shellacking from the Nats yesterday. The team takes on Milwaukee today.

BRADENTON — Manager Charley Grimm of the Cubs planned to send a pair of left-handers, Roy Henshaw and Rookie Wesley Flowers, against the Cards today. He also decided to return to first base after two days of rest.

AUSTIN, Texas.—Mule Haas has been doing a good job playing first base for the White Sox in place of Holdout Zeke Bonura. He drove in two runs yesterday with a double and two singles. Ira Hutchinson and Red Evans, recruits, are Jimmy Dykes' choices for mound duties against the Pirates today.

WINTER HAVEN.—The Reds were here today to play the Phillies. Si Johnson was scheduled to pitch, having been moved up to take the place of Derringer who is in Macon.

ALEXANDRIA — Steve O'Neill is particularly pleased with Willis Hudlin who seems to be rounding into top form. He allowed only two hits in four innings against the Giants yesterday. George Blaeholder and Clint Brown were scheduled to pitch against the New York club today.

AUSTIN.—The Pirates said goodbye to San Antonio with a lot of backslapping for old Iron Man Gus Suhr. The veteran first sacker came out of a long spring batting slump to pound in the winning runs in the first two games with the Chisox. Bucs hope to make it three straight over the Sox today.

GRIFFIN, Ga.—The Athletics play a semi-pro club here today and some of the wags are saying they have at last found their proper class. The Atlanta Crackers beat them yesterday, the Mackmen going hitless in seven innings against Bobby Durham.

CLEARWATER.—The Red Sox play the Dodgers today with Cascarella and Welch scheduled to pitch. They play Newark Wednesday and the Cubs Thursday, starting the trek homeward after the Cubs' game.

ST. PETERSBURG.—Bill McKechnie says he is pleased with the Bees' spring record. "We have won five and lost five games in big league competition this spring. It is a better record than I had expected the team to make down here," he said. Today's game with the Yankees is the Bees' last with a big league team until they return to Boston.

THINK 12 CLUBS WILL TRAIN IN FLORIDA AGAIN

Only Four Thus Far Have Made Definite Arrangements

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., March 30.—(AP)—Indications are that 12 of the sixteen major league baseball clubs will return to Florida next year for their spring training, although only four have made definite announcements.

The New York Yankees and Boston Bees again will take their workouts at St. Petersburg. The Boston Red Sox will camp at Sarasota. The Brooklyn Dodgers have a five-year contract with a hotel at Clearwater.

The world championship Detroit Tigers have made no announcement, but it is believed that Manager Mickey Cochrane once more will whip his squad into shape at Lakeland.

The Cincinnati Reds trained two weeks in Puerto Rico this year before going to Tampa and described the weather as perfect, but they are expected to do all their training in Florida next year.

At Pensacola, civic organizations are attempting to raise $10,000 to assure the return of the New York Giants. Attendance at exhibition games was poor, but Manager Bill Terry liked the weather.

Connie Mack said on two occasions he wanted to take the Athletics to Fort Myers again in 1937 for their thirteenth training season there, and the Washington club is believed planning to return to Orlando. The St. Louis Cardinals are expected to go back to Bradenton next year, although a definite announcement never is made this early.

Before leaving West Palm Beach, Rogers Hornsby expressed satisfaction with local arrangements.

Cleveland is expected to move its spring headquarters from New Orleans although no definite announcement has been made. Manager Pie Traynor of the Pittsburgh Pirates liked the camp at San Antonio, Texas, and his club is expected to return there.

The Chicago Cubs will train at Natalina Island in California again next season, and the White Sox probably will work out at Pasadena.

DUNLAP DEFENDING NORTH, SOUTH TITLE

PINEHURST, N. C., March 30.—(AP)—George T. Dunlap, Jr., of New York, four times a winner, today began defense of his north and south amateur title against approximately 175 golfers, including another former National champion, Francis D. Ouimet.

The field was the largest in several years as the entrants vied for the 32 places in the top flight. After today's 18-hole round the qualifiers will begin 18 hole match play continuing through Friday, with a 36-hole final match Saturday.

It remained to be seen how the amateurs fare over the revamped No. 2 course on which the traditional Pinehurst sand-putting surfaces have been supplanted by grass greens. Pros in the north and south open here last week found the course far more difficult.

Although Dunlap was favored to win his fifth north and south title, he faced such competitors as Pagey Hufty, of Washington, former winner; Rudy Kneppe, once semi-finalist in the National amateur; Charles Clare, former Connecticut champion; Ray Lenahan, Rhode Island amateur; and Arthur Lynch, winner of numerous Florida tournaments.

TY COBB GIVES ADVICE

(By NEA Service)

SAN FRANCISCO, March 30.—Ty Cobb, whose eyes were among the best in baseball, gives some sound advice on care of the peepers. "Don't go to movies too often, and when you do, never sit up close," he says. "Never read lying down, and always keep the reading matter on a level with the eyes."

2 BIG TEAMS ENTER OLYMPIC TRYOUT FINALS

Arkansas University Squad Claims To Be Country's Tallest

NEW YORK, March 30.—(AP)—Two of the biggest teams in the United States—and both of them among the best—will be seen in action this week in the final Olympic basketball tryout at Madison Square Garden. Members of the University of Arkansas team, one of five college entries, are tall enough to contest the claim of the McPherson (Kans.) Refiners to being the country's tallest team.

The Refiners have long Joe Fortenberry, who stretches up six feet eight inches even when he isn't trying to reach the basket, but their average is about the same as that of the Razorbacks, who range from 6-2 to 6-5. Drawn in opposite brackets, the teams, both of which specialize in high scoring may meet in the finals.

The draw for the eight-team tournament pits the Razorbacks Southwest conference champions and victors over Western Kentucky Teachers in the district 3-4 Olympic elimination last week, against the Hollywood Universals, runners-up to McPherson in the recent National A. A. U. championships at Denver. The Refiners encounter Temple university. Other first round games are University of Washington vs. De Paul of Chicago in the upper half and the Denver Safeways, National Y. M. C. A. champions, against Utah State in the lower half.

All four first round games will be played Friday evening. The semi-finals are scheduled for Saturday night and the finals for either Sunday or Monday, depending upon the progress of the New York Americans in the Stanley cup hockey playoffs. Although the draw pits club teams against collegians, it was not seeded in any way according to Avery Brundage of Chicago, president of the American Olympic committee, who handled the pairings.

Three of the finalists did not win their berths until Saturday night. In the final of the district 7-8 college eliminations, Utah State, Rocky Mountain champions, upset the powerful Kansas university team 50-31. Temple defeated Niagara university 37-36 in the district 1-2 playoff. Denver, a quarter finalist in the A. A. U. tourney, won the Y. M. C. A. title at Peoria, Ills., by conquering Wilmerding, Pa., 1935 champions, 47-45 in the final game.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., March 30.—Bobby Grayson, the Stanford football star, wants $15,000 per year to turn pro . . . and offer of $7,500 leaves him cold . . . In the meantime, he can pick up $2,100 per year to join the Stanford coaching staff—and continue his studies . . . The papers down here keep pounding away on the Graham anti-subsidization plan . . . Most of them seem to believe everything will be all right, since they don't figure the southern conference will try to enforce it . . . If it does, the dope is both Duke and Clemson will jump the league and try to get into the southeastern.

Eddie Neil, the eminent war correspondent in Ethiopia, is recovering from a bursted blood vessel in his breast . . . O. B. Keeler, who ought to know, says Bobby Jones will be lucky to finish in the first ten at Augusta this week . . . Nobody in Atlanta agrees with "O. B." . . . Clarence (Brick) Owens, American league umpire, rates Ty Cobb the greatest player he ever saw . . . Not much argument there . . . Give them another pitcher and the Atlanta Crackers seem all set to win another Southern association pennant . . . Around here those who don't pick Bobby Jones favor Henry Picard in the Masters' tournament . . . They say Casey Stengel has forbidden Stan Bordagary, the movie player outfielder, to shave off his moustache . . . He is the only big leaguer to sprout one . . . And do the other Dodgers rib him? . . . Those who know Mike Jacobs say he's serious about taking over control of the fistic industry.

POLO ACE NOT YET AWARE OF WIFE'S DEATH

Mrs. Harold K. Coulter Shot Fatally; Revolver At Side

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, March 30.—(AP)—Tragic news was waiting today for Harold K. (Duke) Coulter, hard-riding polo ace and ousted army captain. His wife was found shot to death in her apartment yesterday with a revolver nearby.

Comely Mrs. Coulter was one of the principals in a secret court-martial that led to her husband's dismissal from the army. The proceeding brought an allegation that he was guilty of misconduct while he was married to another woman.

Coulter, now busy training ponies and in playing polo over the country, had not been located early today. An inquest verdict was expected during the day.

Mrs. Coulter was the divorced wife of William F. Morgan, oil man, who was awarded custody of their small son, William F., Jr., a year ago. The operator of the apartment house, Mrs. J. H. Ruppel, said the mother had appeared despondent lately over the loss of her child.

Persons prominent in San Antonio society testified behind closed doors at the court-martial. The Fort Sam Houston officer's dismissal was approved by the war department, October 4, 1934.

Morgan afterward sued for possession of the son and it was during the custody action that the marriage of Coulter and Mrs. Morgan was disclosed. The former officer's first wife had divorced him a short time before.

When confronted with the charges concerning Mrs. Morgan, Coulter elected to stand trial rather than accept a reprimand for alleged misconduct.

RUSHAWAY IS BEST SINCE BLACK GOLD

NEW ORLEANS, March 30.—(AP)—Rushaway, winner of the $5,000 added Louisiana derby which featured the closing of the 90-day racing season here, was praised today as one of the greatest three-year-olds since Black Gold.

Rushaway breezed to victory by a length in the mile and an eighth in 1:50 4-5 yesterday to break the track record of 1:51 1-5 set in 1928 by War Eagle and equalled in 1930 by Uluniu.

The horse was taken to victory by Johnny Longden, Canadian jockey. It is owned by A. G. Tarn, also of Canada.

"He's the best three-year-old I ever rode," Longden said.

Lolschen, owned by "Bootsie" Hernandez of New Orleans was second in the race, and J. Chesney's Professor Paul was third.

Rushaway paid $2.80 on $2 mutuel tickets.

LAWSON LITTLE TO COMPETE IN AMERICAN OPEN

WILL PASS UP BRITISH TITLE DEFENSE PLAY

In Atlanta For Second Start In Augusta Invitation Tourney

By Alan Gould
(Associated Press Sports Editor)

AUGUSTA, Ga., March 30.—Having mopped up the amateur fields at home and abroad for two straight years, it seems altogether logical to William Lawson Little, Jr., to seek faster company and turn his big golfing guns in the direction of open competition this spring.

He's definitely decided, he said today, to pass up defense of the British amateur crown so that he can compete in the American Open at Baltusrol, New Jersey, early in June. The Californian and his bride hope to take a belated honeymoon trip to England so that he can make a second bid for the British Open crown, but this is only a possibility.

Here for his second start in the Augusta National Invitation tournament, in which he finished sixth last year with 288, the amateur king's prospective plan of campaign doesn't necessarily mean (1) that he has become bored with the monotony of conquests among the simon-pures or (2) that he has reached any decision as to the opportunities to be derived from turning "business man" golfer.

Since he registered two "little slams" in amateur competition, there have been recurrent reports that the Californian contemplated making a career of the game. Unquestionably he has had attractive inducements. He still has but the main answer has yet to be given to the question concerning his future.

He's a syndicate writer now, pounding out his own stuff and going in for "candid camera" studies on the side. He has already had one light "brush" with the U. S. G. A. over the extent to which he can offer instructive matter or helpful hints to duffers in his newspaper stories. This situation is still an issue that seems to concern John G. Jackson, the new president of the national association.

If there's any significance in Little's decision to pass up the British amateur, it isn't immediately apparent.

Little has competed in only five open tournaments. He captured one of them, the Northern California Open, two years ago. He first played in the American Open in 1934. Just off the boat from England, he broke his favorite driver on the first round but despite this bad start he was low amateur and going strong at the finish. Last year he was fourth in the British Open.

Little consistently has shot sub-par golf here the past few days, tuning up for tournament that starts Thursday. With Bob Jones returning to the wars for his one competitive shot of the year, professionals consider Little among the "six best bets" in the all-star field.

"Lawson outclasses amateur rivals and has everything necessary to make a great medal player," said Tommy Armour. "He has improved 1,000 per cent in the past two years. He has all the shots now, plus power, confidence and a new incentive."

The new incentive, Mrs. Little, has taken up golf herself. She hopes soon to "break 100."

PLANES CHECK POSITIONS OF RACING YACHTS

21 Competing In Seventh Annual St. Petersburg-Havana Classic

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., March 30.—(AP)—Coast guard planes were sent out early today to check the positions of 21 yachts competing in the seventh annual St. Petersburg-Havana race.

Reports by coast guard observers late last night indicated that Starlight, Al Fay's 44-foot cutter from Houston, Texas, was out in front, but her sails were drooping, while boats farther back were getting some benefit from fitful puffs of wind.

Behind the Starlight were the Winsome Too and the Venturer, trailed by Vamarie, Babe and Shellback, with Haligonian, Water Witch and West Wind farther astern. Behind West Wind, in this order, were Pieces of Eight, Dolphin, Irondequoit, Windjammer, Aloha, Gamecock, Pagan Moon, Albatross, Zenita 2nd and Mystery. Sea Call and Admate were unsighted.

The Albatross, 42-foot schooner skippered by Dr. Manuel H. Sordo y Cuervo, of Havana, sailed the 280 miles from Havana to St. Petersburg to enter the race without the aid of a chart. In their anxiety to be off, the crew of eight Cubans left their charts on the dock at Havana.

When the Albatross passed Dry Tortugas, one of the crew recognized the locality. Last Wednesday night, Charlotte harbor, Fla., was mistaken for Tampa bay. But the hardy Cubans eventually reached the starting point of the race, where a new set of charts was presented them.

DIZZY AND DAFFY END HOLD-OUT MARATHON

"You boys are lucky to have me'n Paul back!" That, in substance, is what Dizzy Dean (center) is telling Frankie Frisch (left), manager of the St. Louis Cardinals, and President Branch Rickey (right) at Bradenton, Fla., just after signing up for another season and ending his hold-out Brother Paul (Daffy), also a hold-out, signed by proxy and left his Texas farm immediately en route to camp. NEW ORLEANS, March 30.—There won't be any change in the single wingback attack of Tulane's football team next fall. Red Dawson, new coach, learned his football under Bernie Bierman, ex-Green Wave coach, at Tulane and Minnesota, and he plans no departures from the present setup.

HORSE-DOPING APPEALS MADE

Government Asks Supreme Court To Dismiss Pleas

WASHINGTON, March 30.—(AP)—Government lawyers gave the supreme court today a detailed account of race horse doping in a brief asking the court to deny appeals of three race track men sentenced under federal narcotic laws.

Joe F. Patterson, manager, Robert Wingfield, trainer, and Horace Moore, groom, all employed in 1933 by the Audley farms of Virginia, appealed to the highest court from six-month jail terms and fines of $250 to $1,000.

Asking the high tribunal to deny the appeal, the government said federal narcotic agents caught two of the men at a Detroit race track "in the act of placing a syringe, which contained a solution of heroin in the mouth of a horse."

The government said the owner had Knight's Gal, Royal Blunder and Cloudet at the Detroit track and that numerous bottles of narcotics were found with the horses' names on them and pencilled directions to administer the drugs "one hour before post time."

One of the men, the government, said, had a bottle "containing cocaine which he said he had purchased in Cuba several years before."

Attorneys for the horsemen contended the trial judge had violated their constitutional rights because he "had directed" the jury to return a verdict of guilty on certain of the charges.

The government denied this and asked the supreme court to dismiss the appeal without a hearing.

ACTIVITY BEGUN BY DAVIS CUP PLAYERS

HOUSTON, Texas, March 30.—(AP)—Davis cup players of the United States and Mexico started a week of activity today in the River Oaks tournament—a final warm-up for their international competition starting April 10.

Bryan M. (Bitsy) Grant, Atlanta; Wilmer Allison, Austin, Texas, and John Van Ryn, Philadelphia, were entered in the singles. Grant and Allison, top ranking players in 1935 were the favorites.

The California team of Don Budge and Gene Mako is expected here for the doubles play, starting Wednesday.

Mexico was represented by five of her Davis cup squadmen.

Among the starting field of 80 in the men's singles were Kalle Schroder, Sweden, and J. Gilbert Hall, East Orange, N. J., recent winners of the national indoor doubles title; Hal Surface, Kansas City; Arthur Hendrix, Lakeland, Fla.; Charles Harris, West Palm Beach, Fla.; Wilmer Hines, Columbia, S. C., and Henry Culley, Santa Barbara, Calif.

Play in the women's singles opens tomorrow, with Mrs. Marjorie Gladman Van Ryn, wife of the Davis cup veteran, and Mrs. Mary Greef Harris of Kansas City, seeking the title.

INDUSTRIAL AND BUSINESS REVIEW OF THE TWIN CITIES NORTH LOUISIANA'S COMMERCIAL CENTER

FIRM STRESSES OFFICE SYSTEMS

Surveys Made, Equipment Recommended For Businesses

The Monroe Office Equipment company, Incorporated, at 510 Walnut street offers the business man for his office or store a number of special services.

The most important are the record system, ranging from small inexpensive card index of filing systems to the larger installations involving complete layouts for use of pen and ink or mechanical accounting machine equipment. The company is well equipped to handle any installation of record keeping systems due to their exclusive representation of such concerns as Shaw-Walker company, National Blank Book company, and Underwood Elliott Fisher company which manufactures complete lines of record keeping equipment and office machines.

Another factor that attributes to the volume of business given this concern for record keeping supplies and equipment is that they have four employes with a total service record of 60 years in this kind of work.

Surveys are made gratis and stock, standardized, inexpensive forms and equipment are recommended to their many satisfied customers.

Whether you are interested in a box of clips or an expensive accounting machine you will find them interested in giving you the best item for your particular work, backed by their knowledge of each product.

Attention to small as well as large orders has attributed to the success of this concern, and they endeavor to always live up to their slogan "Ours Is A Trade That Service Made."

DEFT WORKMAN REPAIRS RADIOS

St. John Electric Company Offers Guaranteed Work

Expert radio service is offered by St. John Electric company on DeSiard street. Recently T. H. Brooks has been employed to service and repair all radios for the concern.

Mr. Brooks has been in the radio repair business since 1932 when he finished a course at the radio school in Port Arthur, Texas. He has been a member of the Official Radio Men's association since 1933 when he passed the required examination. This association is recognized and endorsed by the leading radio manufacturers of the country.

For the past nine months Mr. Brooks has been located in Monroe as radio technician with the Walters and Parnell Radio service where he worked in the repair department. His connection with St. John Electric company will mean quick service and guaranteed work.

A complete stock of tubes will be handled for all makes of radio sets. Often it is only necessary to replace several tubes to give better performance to a radio. Your radio tubes can be tested by the concern and replacements made on short notice.

By this added service to the radio public complete radio facilities are maintained by St. John. The new General Electric radios are displayed at the show rooms of the company and an invitation is extended to the public to see the new models.

WHITE SYSTEM OFFERS SERVICE

Loans Can Be Repaid In Ten Monthly Installments

With the coming of spring there are many persons who will want to purchase new clothes or other personal needs, but the lack of ready cash may prove a hindrance. The White System, Incorporated, of Monroe has funds to loan to employed people who need ready cash at this time of the year, A. J. McGinn, manager of the concern, said.

Loans at the White System have very reasonable rates and can be repaid in ten monthly installments. The motto of the concern is: "Character plus earning power is the proper basis for credit." For many years a service has been rendered to salaried people whose ability to pay on small paper is unlimited, giving them the privilege to enjoy life and lift them from financial adversities.

The offices of the White System have had years of experience in helping people solve their personal financial problems, and the Monroe office is open each day for consultation.

Each year the White System helps thousands of salaried people who have unforseen troubles that may bring financial worries, and by refinancing it is possible to group their obligations through a loan.

The White System is affiliated with the Industrial Finance and Thrift corporation of New Orleans, and offices are maintained in Jackson, Hattiesburg, Gulfport, Meridian, New Orleans, Shreveport and Monroe.

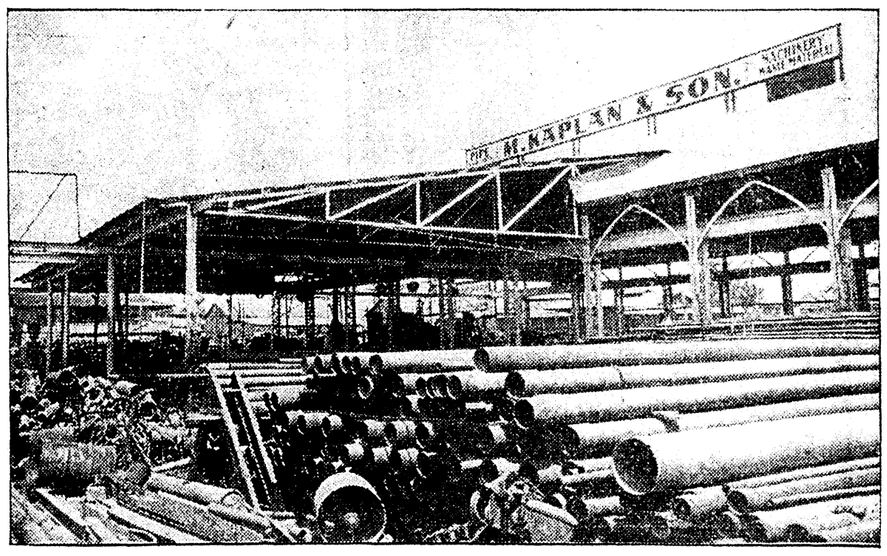
L. R. POWERS ABLE TO SIT UP AT HOME

L. R. Powers, well known veteran grocer of Monroe, who was stricken with an attack of heart disease more than a month ago, is slowly regaining his strength, it was reported Monday.

He is now able to sit up for a short time every day at his home, 320 Walnut street.

On Unimak Island, Alaska, is a lake which boils at one end and freezes at the other.

MONROE'S INDUSTRIAL PIPE CENTER



Above is shown the yards of M. Kaplan and Son, where thousands of feet of used pipe are reclaimed for further use in the oil and gas fields. Pipe is used as structural material in the construction of one story buildings. Such work is being done by the local concern at its yards at Ninth and Adams streets. The firm is under the direction of Max and David Kaplan, who pioneered in this field in Monroe.

CONCERN OFFERS FINANCING PLAN

Monroe Automobile And Supply Lends Money On Cars

Low finance rates with adequate protection is a feature of the finance plan offered by the Monroe Automobile and Supply company, Incorporated.

"You not only save money on the purchase price of a Dodge or Plymouth," officials of the concern said, "But, you also save money on the very liberal official Chrysler Motors Commercial Credit company's 6 per cent financing plan."

Since the Chrysler corporation first offered automobiles to the public, the Commercial Credit company service has been the official finance service of this corporation. It is recommended by the Chrysler corporation as an important factor in the purchase of a new car, since it makes the purchase of a new car easy. The Chrysler corporation endorsement is the guarantee of the customer that the plan is as sound and modern as the car itself, officials of the Monroe Automobile and Supply company said.

When a new car is bought, it should be remembered that there are differences in time payment plans, it was pointed out. The Chrysler Motors Commercial Credit company's finance plan is backed by two great institutions. Through volume operations the rates are low.

The Monroe Automobile and Supply company, incorporated, insists that the buying public, before making a purchase of a new car, see and drive the new Dodge for 1936, and compare Dodge safety features with those of other cars regardless of price. An investigation of the low finance rate is, also, invited.

M. KAPLAN & SON OFFER USED PIPE

Savings Effected By Use Of Second Hand Materials

The use of pipe has increased the demand so much that the business of handling pipe is now the largest part of the business of M. Kaplan and Son, located at Ninth and Adams streets in Monroe.

Featuring used pipe at a real savings enables the company to supply materials to oil and gas field operators in the field at a real saving. Thousands of feet of pipe go into these industrial units yearly from the local supply house of M. Kaplan and Son. Pipelines carry gas and oil many thousands of miles to the various cities of the country and this concern is one of many, in the country, that caters to this line of business.

The combination use of pipe and tubing and oxy-acetylene welding as structural material presents most interesting possibilities for use in the construction of light structures such as sheds, garages, airplane hangers and similar one-story buildings. The reason why the idea of using pipe and oxwelding for the building of light structures has become so attractive is because of the fact that there is a great deal of used pipe of relatively low price available today. Second hand pipe of all grades and conditions is available in large quantities. Boiler tubing, heating systems, and other types of pipe systems in many industries are continually being replaced with new pipe, with later and more efficient design and for any number of other reasons. It is this that makes it possible to consider the use of standard weight secondhand pipe or even scrap lengths of new pipe for structural use.

From their large stock of pipe M. Kaplan and Son are able to offer this kind of work to a large territory.

New pipe is also handled by the concern. It is manufactured by the Wheeling Steel company, and a large selection is in the warehouse.

The firm is under the direction of Max and David Kaplan, and an invitation is extended to anyone interested in this line to visit the offices at Ninth and Adams streets.

NEW OFFICERS ARE INSTALLED

Ralph Holcomb Heads Frank P. Stubbs Memorial Bible Class

Election and installation of new officers of the Frank P. Stubbs Memorial Bible class was the feature of the program at the regular session of the class held Sunday morning in the Paramount theater. Ralph Holcomb was chosen president to succeed R. M. Troy, who has served during the past year.

A new plan, recommended by the nominating committee, to name as vice-presidents the heads of various active committees for the year, was adopted by the class. The vice-presidents elected are: Program, D. Curtis Seamon; attendance and membership, Street McGuffey; social activities, M. M. Cragon; sick and relief, Sid Walker; reception activities, W. R. Hatchell; religious extension, M. E. Bell.

Other officers elected are: C. A. Hatchell, secretary-treasurer; Fred Williamson, Dr. C. E. Kenney, teachers; Mrs. W. M. Wilkerson, organist.

Following the election the officers were installed by Rev. Ernest D. Holloway, pastor of the church.

Reports on various activities of the class during the past year were made. W. J. Kirby gave an interesting account of the Sunday school sponsored by the class at Lamkin. A report was also made on the progress of an attendance contest with the Presbyterian Bible class at El Dorado, Ark. The Stubbs Memorial class is leading in the contest and, should it prove the winner, will receive a visit from the El Dorado class on its conclusion the latter part of this month.

HIGH SCHOOL GIRLS GO TO NATCHITOCHES

A group of Monroe high school girls, chaperoned by Miss Lucyle Godwin and Miss Beverly Fontleroy, by special invitation, participated in "sports day" at Louisiana State Normal college, Natchitoches, on Saturday. Baseball, volley ball, tennis, horse shoe, track, pyramid building and other sports comprised the day's program. The various events were arranged under the direction of Mrs. Thelma Keyser, in charge of physical education at state normal.

At noon an attractive luncheon was served on the grounds.

Those who went from Monroe high schools to participate in the contests were; Nora Virginia Abernathy, Bernice Worthington, Jane McMullen, Annette Lieber, Josephine Nolan, Lenora Aldoldi, Sarah Frances Hinkle Jean Freret, Naomi Campbell and Ellen Hale.

RUSTON STUDENT IS GIVEN MORE HONORS

RUSTON, La., March 30—(Special)—Two additional elective honors this week came to Billy Mitchell of Ruston, a junior at Louisiana Tech.

He has been chosen as president of the senior class for next year, after having held the presidency of his freshman, sophomore and junior class here, and also has been named as head of the Theta Kappa Nu social fraternity at Tech.

Varsity lettermen a few weeks ago elected Mitchell as alternate captain of the 1936 Tech football team, of which he has been a regular halfback the past two years.

In February, 1899, there was sleighing for three days near Montgomery, Ala., and two inches of ice in New Orleans.

TARZAN AND THE LEOPARD MEN — —By Edgar Rice Burroughs

As Tarzan gazed down into the House of Horrors, a great determination welled up in his heart. Solemnly he dedicated his every power of mind and body—his life, if need be—to the destruction of the fiendish chieftain and his cohorts of the Leopard Clan.

Quietly the ape-man slipped down from the roof of the temple and raced to the tiny beach. He was reluctant to risk his life among the savage crocodiles. His life was no longer his to risk. It belonged to the innocents who had suffered the ravages of the clansmen.

Fortunately he discovered a small canoe and soon he was paddling powerfully toward the opposite shore, where Nkima welcomed him. Tarzan leaped from the canoe and sprang treeward. "Follow me if you can," he called to the little monkey; "I have no time to waste."

Swift as a gust of wind Tarzan traveled through the trees to seek Orando's warriors. Shortly after dawn he came upon the army of Leopard Men; but, strangely, instead of hastening away he came nearer and cried mockingly: "If you are looking for me, here I am!"

Cotton

New Orleans

NEW ORLEANS, March 30.—(AP)—The cotton market was an extremely quiet affair here today as both the volume of business and the range of prices were held to minute proportions.

In late afternoon trading positions had barely moved from their opening levels and aside from a little activity in the old crop months the market was barren of business.

May sold at 11.22 after noon with July at 10.87 and October at 10.18, within a point or two of Saturday's final prices.

Both the trade and speculative interests appeared determined to await Washington developments regarding the sale of loan cotton before getting into the market on either side.

Experts today were 3,056 bales.

The market closed steady one point higher to four points lower in very dull dealings.

Cotton futures closed steady net 1 point up to 4 points down.

PUBLISHERS' NOTICE

Beginning Tuesday, March 31, final quotations of the New York stock list will appear daily in the Morning World. The 2 p.m. quotations, heretofore given in the News-Star and Morning World, will be discontinued.

New York Stocks

NEW YORK, March 30.—(AP)—Demand for a few specialties, some of which managed to hold gains of 1 to around 2 points, today kept the stock market on a fairly even keel.

While the close was steady, it was the dullest full session in six months. Transfers approximated only 900,000 shares.

By Victor Eubank
(Associated Press Financial Writer)

NEW YORK, March 30.—Steadying influences permeated the stock market today, with strong support appearing for scattered specialties.

At the same time numerous issues were unchanged to moderately lower and there was little deviation from the slow trading pace of the past several sessions.

Advices from abroad had a little brighter tone and the French franc, along with other gold currencies, displayed mild rallying tendencies in terms of the dollar.

Farm implement shares were in demand. J. I. Case got up more than 6 points at one time but, near the start of the fourth hour, had yielded the largest part of this advance. International Harvester, Deere and Caterpillar Tractor were ahead a point or so each.

There were a few new 5-year highs recorded. Gainers of fractions to around 2 included Midland Steel Products, Waukesha Motors, Bendix, Cerro De Pasco, American Smelting, American Crystal Sugar, Loew's, Auburn and American Telephone. Douglas Aircraft, Johns-Manville and Seaboard Oil were off about a point each. The rails, steels and utilities were narrow.

Bonds were moderately mixed and quiet, as were grains and cotton.

International securities markets maintained a quiet and calm demeanor and no exceptional buying or selling movements were looked for in these centers until after the Easter holidays.

Sugar

NEW YORK, March 30.—(AP)—Sugar futures were firm and active again today and at new high levels for the year on further trade covering against sales of actuals and speculative buying prompted by the continued strength of the raw and refined markets.

July advanced from 2.82 to 2.83 and January from 2.57 to 2.60, or 2 to 4 points net higher with the market in the late trading holding at or within a point of these levels.

FERNANDEZ HIRES 2 WITH HIS NAME

WASHINGTON, March 29.—(AP)—A check of the house payroll for March disclosed that only one member—Representative Fernandez, Democrat, Louisiana, had more than one employe of the same name. The payroll showed John D. Fernandez received $316.16 and Viola M. Fernandez $100 from the Louisianian.

House officials said the number of office employes having the same name as their employer totaled only 30 as compared with an average of around 35 last session.

Representative Mitchell, Democrat, Tennessee, foe of nepotism, said he was still hopeful congress would pass his bill to prohibit the practice. The house expenditures committee held several hearings on the Mitchell bill early in the session, but took no action.

The March salary list, showing members of congress having employes with the same name as their own included:

Carmichael, Democrat, Alabama, Herbert Carmichael, $176.58; Connery, Democrat, Massachusetts, Lawrence J. Connery, $208.33; De Rouen, Democrat, Louisiana, L. R. De Rouen, $206.16; Fernandez, Democrat, Louisiana, John D. Fernandez, $310.66, and Viola M. Fernandez, $100; Gregory, Democrat, New York, Marie Gregory, $208.33; May, Democrat, Kentucky, Julia G. May, $284.66; Tarver, Democrat, Georgia, Malcom C. Tarver, Jr., $166.66.

MARKETS AT A GLANCE

NEW YORK, March 30.—(AP)—Stocks steady; scattered specialties up in dull session. Bonds irregular; U. S. governments steady. Foreigns heavy. Curb even; specialties improve. Foreign exchanges higher; French francs recover. Cotton quiet trade buying; local and foreign selling. Sugar higher; strong spot market. Coffee quiet; disappointing Brazilian markets.

CHICAGO: Wheat firm; Kansas freeze forecast. Corn higher; shipping demand active. Cattle steady to easy. Hogs steady to strong; top $10.80.

Chicago Grain

CHICAGO, March 30.—(AP)—Wheat averaged a little higher in price early today owing more or less to unfavorable weather conditions in domestic crop territory southwest.

Opening unchanged to 3-8 higher, May 96 5-8-3-4, July 87 3-4, wheat then reacted somewhat. Corn started unchanged to 1-4 up, May 60 1-8, and for the time being held near to this level.

Wheat closed firm, unchanged to 5-8 higher compared with Saturday's finish, May 97-97 1-8, July 87 3-4-7-8, corn 1-8-1-2 up, May 60 1-4-3-8, oats 1-8 advanced, and provisions varying from 2 cents decline to an equal gain.

BOOSTER CLUB TO MEET HERE

Missouri Pacific Group Plans Monthly Meet On Thursday

The April meeting of the Missouri Pacific Booster club will be held at the clubhouse on Ouachita avenue Thursday at 7:30 p.m., according to an announcement made Monday by S. A. Moss, chief booster.

A specially good program is being arranged, he stated, and the principal speaker will be W. E. Lamb, general superintendent, with headquarters at Little Rock, Ark.

Others who will participate on the program will be G. C. Stohlman, general freight and passenger agent at Little Rock, and T. D. Moss, assistant general passenger agent, also located at Little Rock.

In addition to talks made by these officials, there will be a musical program. A social will conclude the program for the evening.

SUGAR EXPORTS DROP

NEW YORK, March 30.—(AP)—Refined sugar exports by the United States in the first two months of 1936 totaled 6,759 long tons, compared with 19,254 tons in the same period a year ago, according to Lamborn and company, sugar brokers. This is the smallest total exports from this country in any two months since the first part of 1933.

Germany had a ban on the opening of new movie theaters during 1934.

Tech Graduation Exercises To Be Held In Ruston Theater

RUSTON, La., March 30.—(Special)—Selection of the Rialto theater in Ruston as the building in which Louisiana Tech's two principal graduation events will be held has been announced by Dr. H. L. Hughes, chairman of the faculty committee on commencement exercises.

The staging of the commencement activities off the campus was seen as a necessity since the burning of the main Tech auditorium has left the college temporarily without a satisfactory place for public functions. The theater has been offered for the senior events free of charge, it was announced.

The committee had considered several possible places for holding the graduation exercises, including the Tech stadium. The latter was rejected principally because of the possibility of rain, it was explained.

The committee's recommendation to accept the offer of the theater has been approved by President G. W. Bond, as well as by a majority of the seniors who recently held a class meeting.

Plans call for the seniors and faculty members, in academic regalia, to assemble at the Methodist Educational building, near the Rialto, and march to the theater for both the baccalaureate and the commencement exercises.

The senior sermon will be preached at 11 o'clock Sunday morning, May 31, by Dr. Wade H. Boggs, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Shreveport. Commencement will be held at 10 a. m. Tuesday, June 2, with Dr. E. L. Stephens, president of Southwestern Louisiana Institute, Lafayette, delivering the principal address.

NEGRO BRAKEMAN IS FATALLY SHOT HERE

David Kidd, negro, 48, brakeman of the Little Rock and Monroe branch of the Missouri Pacific railroad for a number of years, was fatally wounded at his residence, 611 Layton avenue, early Monday morning, when a .32-calibre rifle in the hands of Alzenda Jordan, negro woman, reputedly accidentally discharged. Kidd's residence was also said to be the home of the woman.

Kidd was wounded in the abdomen about 2:50 a.m. He died about 5:15 a.m., at a local hospital.

An investigation of the shooting was begun by the sheriff's department and Coroner C. L. Mengis. Witnesses were summoned for an investigation to be held at the coroner's office in the afternoon.

Witnesses told the investigators that Kidd was shot as he entered the front door of the residence. Several minutes previously he had left the house, leaving by a rear door, it was stated. During his absence a small dog was said to have run against a rifle leaning against the wall and to have caused it to fall to the floor. The Jordan woman was in the act of picking the gun up from the floor when it discharged, wounding Kidd as he entered the front door, the witnesses said.

TECH BUILDING BIDS WILL BE CONSIDERED

RUSTON, La., March 30.—(Special)—Bids for the construction of a new administration building and auditorium at Louisiana Tech will be considered by members of the state board of education at a meeting in Baton Rouge on Saturday, April 4, it has been announced here. The board at that time also will act on the recommendations of the college presidents for faculty appointments.

The new administration building and auditorium will replace the main Tech hall which was destroyed by fire on January 6. In advertising for estimates on building the two structures, the state board of education has asked for sealed proposals as follows: General contract, furniture and fixtures contract; stage equipment contract, and miscellaneous contracts.

It is expected that work on the two buildings will start immediately after contractors' bids are accepted, and that the structures will be completed by the opening of the regular college session this fall.

Evidence that man lived in America before the ice age has been recently uncovered.

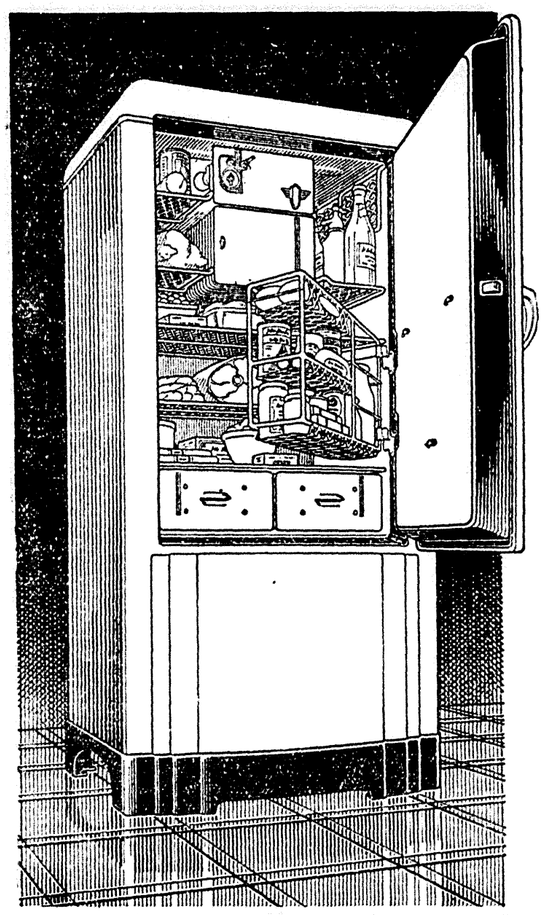
WE CHALLENGE THE ENTIRE ELECTRIC REFRIGERATOR FIELD TO A PUBLIC TEST ★

FOR OPERATING ECONOMY . . FAST FREEZING . . LOW TEMPERATURE . . QUIETNESS

NO TRICKS . . . NO SPECIAL MODELS . . . A SIZE-FOR-SIZE, STOCK-MODEL . . . OPEN AND ABOVE BOARD PUBLIC DEMONSTRATION TO BE CONDUCTED BY DISINTERESTED PERSONS OF RESPONSIBILITY . . .

EACH LOSER TO PAY $400.00 TO FLOOD-RELIEF FUND

There are several good electric refrigerators on the market today . . . a fact we are happy and anxious to acknowledge . . . but we believe STEWART-WARNER is the finest electric refrigerator ever built, and we believe it pretty strongly. We believe also that you are entitled to know which refrigerator will do the best job . . . to settle in your own mind the question of conflicting claims and counterclaims. So we propose a test of the four counts outlined above . . . the real test of electric refrigeraion . . . to be made in a public place, under supervision of a committee to be selected by the joint contestants, each entry to deposit in any selected bank, in advance, $100.00 on each of the four counts (economy, fast-freezing, low temperature, quietness) or $400.00 for each contestant, the winner alone to be exempt from payment and the entire remaining amount to be paid to flood relief.



★ WE KNOW THE ANSWER

As a matter of fact, STEWART-WARNER has already been repeatedly tested "against the field" in the laboratory and in "home conditions" and has repeatedly won every count. We feel that it is only fair that we admit such tests have already been made. WE KNOW THE ANSWER, and we feel that you are entitled to know it too.

STEWART-WARNER RUNS LESS . . COSTS LESS

LABORATOR TESTS AT 80° HOT-ROOM TEMPERATURE SHOW EVERY STEWART-WARNER MODEL IN OUR LINE, INCLUDING LARGEST 8-FOOT SIZE, OPERATES ON LESS CURRENT THAN 60-WATT BULB.

We will be delighted to show you the exact and accurate laboratory test sheet on this operating time test. Stewart-Warner's amazingly economical SLO-CYCLE twin-cylinder is making history today in homes the nation over.
